DISCUSSIONS WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PUBLICATION
"PROBLEMS OF PEACE AND SOCIALISM," ALSO KNOWN AS
"WORLD MARXIST REVIEW," OFFICIAL THEORETICAL ORGAN OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNIST MOVEMENT PUBLISHED IN PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA

A source, who has furnished reliable information
in the past, in early January, 1965, advised as follows:

~~/~~ In December, 1964, during discussions with A.
Sobolev, Executive Secretary and Acting Editor-in-Chief of "Problems of Peace and Socialism," also known as the "World Marxist Review," official theoretical organ of the international communist movement published in Prague, Czechoslovakia, and other individuals connected with this publication, the following was learned:

It is possible that any day now the Communist Party (CP) of Italy may adopt a resolution suggesting that "Problems of Peace and Socialism" drop publication and they may also announce that they will no longer participate in the affairs of the magazine. According to Sobolev, the representative of the CP of Italy who is attached to the publication had made just such a statement recently prior to his return to Italy.

In addition to possible proposals to abolish the publication, certain other CPs have made proposals to move the publication's headquarters from the socialist countries.
For example, the CP of Great Britain thinks that the magazine should perhaps move to London or some other non-socialist European country. The CP of Iceland has made a similar suggestion. Both of these Parties are of the opinion that by moving the publication to a non-socialist country, it would not be so completely influenced by the socialist countries.

Since Alexei ~~Rumyantsev~~^V, a member of the Central Committee of the CP of the Soviet Union, who had been holding the position of Editor-in-Chief of "Problems of Peace and Socialism," was recalled to Moscow, USSR, for the purpose of taking over the position of Editor-in-Chief of "Pravda," official organ of the Central Committee, CP of the Soviet Union, the position Editor-in-Chief of "Problems of Peace and Socialism" has been open. Sobolev has been hinting that he would like this position as Editor-in-Chief and other members of the magazine staff are "bucking" for Sobolev to get it. However, apparent requirements for this position are that the Editor-in-Chief be Russian and a member of the Central Committee, CP of the Soviet Union. While Sobolev is of Russian origin, he presently is not a member of the Central Committee, CP of the Soviet Union.

In regard to the circulation of "Problems of Peace and Socialism," it was reported that 3,500 copies of the magazine are regularly sold in Cyprus; 4,000 copies are regularly sold in Denmark; and, only 2,500 copies are sold in Italy, the European country with the largest Party membership outside of the socialist countries.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Dear Mr. Moyers:

The following information received from [redacted] which has supplied reliable information in the past is being brought to your attention as a matter of possible interest to the President.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko recently made the following comments to a leader of the Communist Party, USA, concerning President Johnson:

The Soviets are not impressed with President Johnson and do not expect him to take any important action relative to easing the cold war. President Johnson is regarded as a man "who does not evaluate or think ahead on important problems." He is totally different from former President Kennedy who was very good in making long-range plans in regard to the cold war. However, President Johnson has one thing in his favor and that is his ability to "solve, quickly, short-range immediate problems."

"We would like to organize a delegation of youth to attend the Festival and to go to Cuba on their way back. If this is agreeable to the Cuban friends we will need to know how many youth could come, for how long, since we expect many leaders of the major civil rights, general youth and student organizations to go to the Festival and it is permissible to organize a very broad and sizable delegation to Cuba if the Cuban friends are in agreement. We also feel it is possible and desirable from our point of view to organize a broad delegation to go from the Festival to Vietnam to report to the American youth when they learn about the true nature of the war from South Vietnam and from the Democratic republic of Vietnam. If this is possible and agreeable to the Vietnam friends we would like to know how many should come, for what length of time, etc. It would be most important to us in general and to me in particular if you would see that the above problems are attended to and taken care of. I am quite concerned about this therefore my reason for this message.

On 12/30/64, GUS HALL advised NY 694-S* that when HALL met GROMYKO on 12/18/64, GROMYKO said nothing startling but HALL recalls that one interesting thing said was GROMYKO'S characterization of President JOHNSON. HALL told NY 694-S* that GROMYKO stated that he and the Soviets were not impressed by President JOHNSON and that they do not expect anything important from him in relation to the easing of the cold war. GROMYKO said that President JOHNSON is a man who does not evaluate or think ahead on important problems and is unlike former President KENNEDY who was very good in foreseeing and making long-range plans in regard to the cold war. This recommends New York be allowed to recontact persons who manage property wherein subject resides. New York previously contacted these persons on 10/27/64 and thereafter through NY 694-S* we learned the Soviets were being informed of our interest in subject.

Subject is a Counselor of the Soviet Mission to the United Nations. He is the Head of the Political Branch of the Committee of State Security (KGB). On 10/27/64 New York contacted Mr. [redacted] and Mr. [redacted] who [redacted] in which subject resides. Thereafter our highly placed informant in the Communist Party, NY 694-S*, received a message from Gus Hall, General Secretary of the Communist Party, which message was to be relayed to Moscow. The message indicated that microphones have been planted in apartment (apparently the one occupied by subject 11/2/64). We have not installed microphones in subject's apartment.

[redacted] is the subject of an investigation which shows he has been active in communist front organizations in the past. No unfavorable information as of yet has been developed on [redacted]

New York has requested permission to make additional innocuous contact with either [redacted] to inquire with respect to the continuous residence of the subject at the address where he resided when inquiry was made 10/27/64. The primary purpose is to protect the security of NY 694-S*. We normally make efforts to verify addresses of Soviet officials similar to subject and it is felt that failure to make some further inquiry might cast suspicion on NY 694-S*.

The Domestic Intelligence Division agrees with New York that the security of NY 694-S* is paramount and that the action New York purports might protect our source. The New York Office was instructed on 11/17/64 that indices should be checked before making the type of contact made with [redacted] on 10/27/64.

Subject: CONFERENCE OF LATIN-AMERICAN COMMUNIST PARTIES, HAVANA, CUBA
November, 1964

The following information was supplied by a source which has furnished reliable information in the past.

In November, 1964, a conference was held in Havana, Cuba, with leaders of approximately 20 of the more important Communist Parties of Latin America in attendance. This conference was called to discuss Latin-American problems, including the relations between the Latin-American Communist Parties and the Cuban Government and the nature of Cuban interference in the internal affairs of other Communist Parties in Latin America. Reportedly Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba attended this conference and, as a result of the discussions at the conference, Castro promised to:

- (1) Respect the rights of other Latin-American Communist Parties. REC-56 100-428091-4473 JAN 12 1965 6-703
- (2) Reconsider the support Cuba rendered to certain guerrilla bands in these Latin-American countries not recognized by the Communist Parties in those countries. works
- (3) Reconsider the support rendered to certain factional groups which have splintered away from the recognized Communist Party in certain Latin-American countries.

The following information was supplied by sources which have furnished reliable information in the past.

The Communist Party, USA, would like to organize a youth delegation composed of many leaders of the major civil rights, general youth and student organizations in the United States to attend the Youth Festival to be held in Algeria in 1965. If permission can be obtained from the Government of Cuba, part of this delegation will visit Cuba on the return trip to the United States. The Party also feels it is desirable to have a group from the United States delegation visit Vietnam to report to American youth on the "true nature" of the war in South Vietnam and what they learn from the "Democratic Republic of Vietnam."

The Marxist-oriented youth organization, the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America, formed under the sponsorship of the Communist Party, USA, in June, 1964, has been asked to serve on the International Preparatory Committee of the Youth Festival to be held in Algeria in 1965. The Communist Party, USA, is opposed to this action since it feels a united front-type group, the United States Festival Committee, which is soon to be announced publicly, should receive this invitation in place of the DuBois Clubs or any other American organization. STATUS OF THE EDITORIAL COMMISSION MEETING
SCHEDULED TO BE HELD IN MOSCOW, RUSSIA, TO PREPARE FOR A WORLD-WIDE MEETING OF
COMMUNIST PARTIES

During December, 1964, a discussion was held in Moscow, Russia, in which various officials of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) commented on the status of the Editorial Commission meeting to prepare for a world-wide meeting of communist parties in 1965. In essence, this discussion was as follows:

It is almost certain that the scheduled meeting on March 1, 1965, of the Editorial Commission, which had been rescheduled from December 15, 1964, will be held as now planned in Moscow, Russia. The decision to postpone the meeting from December 15, 1964, to March 1, 1965, followed a favorable response from over fifty communist parties throughout the world which had received an inquiry sent out by the CPSU on this matter. However, all communist parties which agreed to the postponement of the Editorial Commission informed the CPSU that this must be the last postponement.

The time now intervening before the scheduled March 1, 1965, meeting will be used by the CPSU to attempt to convince the various communist parties that the CPSU will not surrender any of its principles. During this period, the CPSU will also seek to carry out discussions with those parties which are hesitant concerning attendance in the hope that, on the basis of Marxist-Leninist principles of unity of the international movement, they will change their positions and attend.

As of late December, 1964, seventeen of the twenty-six communist parties, including all communist parties in Latin America to which invitations had been sent, had replied and accepted the invitation to participate in the March 1, 1965, Editorial Commission meeting in Moscow. Seven communist parties receiving similar invitations to attend the meeting have refused to participate. They are as follows: Communist Party of China, Albanian Party of Labor, Communist Party of Japan, Korean Party of Labor, Communist Party of Indonesia, Rumanian Workers Party and the Workers Party of Vietnam. In addition, neither the Communist Party of Great Britain nor the Communist Party of Italy has responded to the invitation for the March 1, 1965, meeting. These parties are hesitant about attending; however, the CPSU is of the opinion that they will be present when the meeting convenes.

In regard to the Rumanian Workers Party's decision not to attend the March 1, 1965, meeting, it is known that the Rumanian Party is not in total agreement with the ideological position of the Communist Party of China (CPC). The Rumanian Workers Party has at times condemned some of the policies of the CPC. However, the Rumanian Workers Party is of the opinion that it is impossible to hold any kind of an international meeting without the participation of the CPC and that the absence of the CPC from such a meeting would show the entire world that there is a split in the international communist movement. At the present time, the CPSU is carrying on bilateral discussions with representatives of the Rumanian Workers Party on the topic of Rumanian participation in the March 1, 1965, Editorial Commission meeting.

In regard to the Workers Party of Vietnam, the CPSU has been encouraged by some recent events and believes that there is a "slight possibility" of a breakthrough with the Workers Party of Vietnam and that there is a good possibility that the Vietnam Party will be in attendance at the Editorial Commission meeting.

In view of the objections raised by some communist parties in regard to the calling of the March 1, 1965, Editorial Commission meeting, the CPSU has prepared and circulated a letter to various communist parties throughout the world. In this letter the CPSU pointed out that the March 1, 1965, meeting has not been called for the purpose of excommunicating any party.

~~TOP SECRET~~

PREPARE FOR A WORLD-WIDE MEETING OF

This meeting, the CPSU noted, is necessary in order that the international communist movement can take note of changes in the world situation and be able to scientifically determine how these changes "can outline the general tasks of the communist movement."

In preparation for the holding of the Editorial Commission meeting, leading theoreticians of the CPSU are preparing documents which will be presented at the meeting. Some other communist parties also are reportedly preparing drafts of their own documents which they plan to submit at the meeting. All communist parties will receive copies of documents being drafted by the CPSU and they may offer their amendments. As a result, these documents will be collective and will serve to unify the international communist movement.

The first session of the March 1, 1965, Editorial Commission meeting will not attempt to deal with substantive questions. The general aim will be first to decide what matters should be the subject of discussion and identification will be made of those items on which agreement can be reached or which will promote unity on the basis of Marxist-Leninist principles.

Leading representatives of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) recently made an analysis of the Communist Party of Japan (CPJ) which, in essence, is as follows:

The Communist Party of China (CPC) exerts a strong influence on the CPJ. The line of the CPJ is opposed to the best interests of the Japanese people. The Japanese people were the "first and only" to suffer the effects of an atomic bomb blast; therefore, they welcomed the test ban treaty. Yet the CPJ repudiated the treaty, cheered the atom test of the People's Republic of China and is against disarmament or anything that leads to understanding among nations. As a result, the CPJ is losing members and the publication of the Central Committee of the CPJ, "Akahata," is losing circulation.

The CPJ is now conducting a most vicious anti-Soviet campaign in spite of the fact that there is a lot of sympathy for the Soviet Union in Japan and Soviet delegations have been well received there. There appears to be a "big contradiction" between the people of Japan and the CPJ.

A new group is rising in Japan under the leadership of Yoshio Siga, a member of the Japanese Diet who was expelled from the CPJ for defending the test ban treaty and voting for its ratification in the Diet. The CPSU tends to give support to Siga and will support all groups in Japan who are for peace.

While the CPC considers all anti-Party factions in all countries as "Parties," the Soviets do not and still formally recognize the CPJ as the one and only Communist Party there. Unlike the CPC which does not communicate or recognize any Party, except those which totally agree with their line, the CPSU expects to continue formal relations and communications with the CPJ.

While the CPNZ has formally aligned itself with the Communist Party of China and has accepted that Party's ideological line, there is new opposition to this position in New Zealand. A new group has been formed which stands for peace, favors the test ban treaty and favors the position taken by the CPSU and the majority of the international communist movement. It ends with some dangerous tension spots but that is all part of the process.

CG 5824-S* was in the Soviet Union during December, 1964, while on Solo Mission 17 and conferred with several Soviet officials, including Mikhail A. Suslov, Secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), who made the following comments concerning the meeting between Sino-Soviet representatives which was held in Moscow, Russia, following the 11/7/64 celebration of the 47th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

There were four days of fruitless discussions. The Chinese delegation, led by Chinese Premier CHOU En-lai, was of the opinion that the removal of former Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev was done to improve Sino-Soviet relations. The Chinese were told that despite the removal of Khrushchev, the policy of the CPSU remained the same. The Soviet leaders expressed a willingness to discuss any reasonable proposal which could lead to greater unity. The Chinese delegation insisted that unity could be accomplished only if the Soviets would give up their program of peaceful coexistence. The Soviets refused to agree to this, and CHOU stated, in that case, there is nothing to discuss.

The Soviets asked the Chinese to forget the past and suggested that discussions could be carried out on the manner of how to put an end to open polemics and how to stop the factional activities in the international communist movement. CHOU replied that he had not been authorized to discuss such matters.

The Soviets suggested that a discussion be held concerning the holding of a meeting of an Editorial Commission to prepare for a meeting of all communist parties of the world. CHOU indicated he was authorized to discuss matters with the Soviets only if he found there was a "new spirit" in the Soviet Union. CHOU commented that it was obvious that nothing had changed since the removal of Khrushchev.

CHOU on a number of occasions threatened Leonid I. Brezhnev, First Secretary, Central Committee, CPSU, by stating, "If you persist, your fate will be the same as Khrushchev's." Brezhnev suggested that the meeting be held on another level, even in Peking, China, if the Chinese desired. CHOU indicated he would inform MAO Tse-tung, Chairman, Communist Party of China (CPC), of ~~his~~ suggestion. 100-428091-4483

CHOU accused the Soviets as being "a willing tool of United States imperialism." The Soviets protested and CHOU asked if it were not a fact that Aleksey N. Kosygin, Chairman of the Soviet Council of Ministers, had "shook the hand of the American Ambassador, who is a representative of United States imperialism." CHOU further accused the Soviets of "running in the same harness, along the same path as United States imperialism."

Although the Soviet delegation had a difficult time controlling itself, it asked the Chinese delegation if it had any other suggestions on which to deal with the CPSU. After several minutes of complete silence, the Soviet delegation suggested that a meeting at the highest level be held and requested the Chinese delegation to suggest the place for such a meeting. CHOU replied that perhaps consideration would be given this suggestion and perhaps the CPC would have some answer. The CPC's answer was the vicious attack upon the policies and leadership of the CPSU which appeared in an editorial in "Red Flag," theoretical organ of the Central Committee, CPC.

The CPSU leadership has come to the conclusion that the CPC leadership is irreconcilable as it now stands since the CPC wants the complete surrender of the Soviets' program of peaceful coexistence. The CPSU, after the discussions with the delegation from the CPC, has decided to make another attempt to hold a conference of all communist parties of the world.

SOVIET ATTITUDE REGARDING RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

During December, 1964, Mikhail Suslov, a member of the Presidium and the Secretariat, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), made the following comments concerning the attitude of the leadership of the CPSU regarding relations between the United States and the People's Republic of China (PRC).

The CPSU is fearful that the United States Government is going to "double-cross" the Soviet Government in regard to relations with the PRC. In this connection, the CPSU is of the opinion that "certain interests" in the United States are trying to go as far as to recognize the PRC "de facto" if not "de jure." Although the CPSU does not expect the United States Government to follow the same course of action taken by the Government of France, the CPSU believes that "certain interests" in the United States will exert pressure to have the United States carry on trade relations with the PRC. The CPSU is concerned over the possibility that the United States may try to "use" the PRC in some manner against the Soviet Union.

Suslov characterized the PRC as "a bride with too many suitors" and included the United States as being among the "suitors." In this connection, Suslov noted the discussions which have been carried on over a period of years in Warsaw, Poland, between representatives of the United States and the PRC. Suslov remarked that while the Soviet Union does not know what transpired during these discussions, Soviet officials are of the opinion that "certain interests" in the United States are "pushing" for trade relations with the PRC which would be merely a prelude to more concrete forms of recognition.

In view of this fear on the part of the Soviet Union, Suslov noted that the Soviet Union must make every effort to counter Chinese influence wherever possible. As a result, the Soviet Union is reluctantly supporting the Government of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (North Vietnam), since it believes that this is the only way to keep the Chinese out. However, Suslov indicated that as a matter of fact, the Soviet Union would like to see the Chinese involved in the Vietnam war and would not be sorry to see the Chinese "seriously hurt" in this war.

MOBILIZATION OF COMMUNIST PARTIES OF THE WORLD FOR A CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE MCCARRAN ACT

The announcement during December, 1964, by the United States Department of Justice that the United States Government plans to proceed with the prosecution of the Communist Party, USA, under the provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950, which is also known as the McCarran Act, has initiated an immediate response from the Communist Party, USA. The Communist Party, USA, is endeavoring to mobilize all communist parties of the world in a broad campaign against the enforcement of the McCarran Act.

The Communist Party, USA, hopes that, as a result of this campaign, the White House, the United States Department of Justice and the United States embassies will be deluged with telegrams, petitions and delegations making charges concerning the alleged injustice of the McCarran Act. The United States Government will be accused of hypocrisy on the subject of justice and President Lyndon B. Johnson will be charged with "violating the overwhelming mandate of the people of the United States reflected in the recent election campaign."

Some communist parties, such as those in Chile, Uruguay, Argentina and Cyprus, have promised to raise this matter in the parliaments of their countries. It is expected that wherever the communists have elected representation in parliaments, they will try to agitate against the McCarran Act.

On December 27, 1964, the Presidium of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, met and voted to conduct a broad campaign against the McCarran Act in solidarity with the Communist Party, USA. The leadership of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union finds it difficult to understand the action of the United States Government in initiating prosecutive action against the Communist Party, USA, in light of the alleged defeat of the "political right" in the recent national elections in the United States. Some Soviet officials expressed the opinion that it is possible that the United States is planning a war and may be trying to "strike the first blow" against the communists. The Communist Party of the Soviet Union will make its campaign very broad and it will include mass meetings in factories and on farms as well as articles in Soviet publications dealing with the "injustice in the United States directed against Negroes in Mississippi." In addition, the Communist Party of the Soviet Union will send a circular letter to most of the communist parties of the world apprising them of the fight of the Communist Party, USA, against the McCarran Act and informing them of the broad campaign being undertaken by the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. Although the Communist Party of the Soviet Union cannot tell other fraternal parties what to do, the Communist Party of the Soviet Union expects that these other communist parties will initiate a similar campaign.

MOBILIZATION OF COMMUNIST PARTIES OF THE WORLD

Rodney Arismendi, First Secretary, Central Committee, Communist Party of Uruguay, has promised the Communist Party, USA, that he will raise the issue of the McCarran Act in Uruguay. In this connection, Arismendi indicated he would make use of the press, radio and television. He also indicated he would endeavor to raise this issue in parliament and in numerous city councils. Arismendi further promised that demonstrations would be conducted in Uruguay in front of "United States institutions" and in factories "controlled by United States money." He requested that the Communist Party, USA, have its lawyers prepare documents showing how the McCarran Act "stands in violation of the United States Constitution" and, in reality, "puts people in jail for their ideas."

M. Trado, a member of the Political Bureau of the Communist Party of Chile, promised the Communist Party, USA, that the Communist Party of Chile will use the campaign against the McCarran Act to expose "United States imperialism." He indicated that the popular forces of Chile, including the Communist Party of Chile and the intellectuals, will organize a campaign to assist the Communist Party, USA, in its fight against the McCarran Act. Trado requested that the Communist Party, USA, send material to him pertaining to the McCarran Act so that the Communist Party of Chile can use the material during the parliamentary elections in Chile. Trado based his support of the Communist Party, USA, in this fight on the statement, "We will be true to our international duties."

MOBILIZATION OF COMMUNIST PARTIES OF THE WORLD

Gilberto Vieira, Political Secretary of the Central Committee, Communist Party of Colombia, promised the Communist Party, USA, that the Communist Party of Colombia will raise the problem of the fight by the Communist Party, USA, against the McCarran Act in trade unions, parliamentary groups and among the workers in general. He urged the Communist Party, USA, to send some of its representatives to Colombia and promised that the Communist Party of Colombia would give the Communist Party, USA, its full and complete support.

The following information was supplied by sources who have furnished reliable information in the past.

Claude Mack Lightfoot, Vice Chairman of the Communist Party (CP), USA (CPUSA), during December, 1964, traveled to Bombay, India, as the official representative of the CPUSA to the Seventh Congress of the CP of India. Lightfoot addressed the Congress and a partial text of his comments appeared in the December 20, 1964, issue of "New Age," central organ of the CP of India.

Lightfoot discussed the role of the CPUSA in the recent United States Presidential elections. He chided the CP of China for its theory that "the worse things get the better." He maintained that the fight against the danger from the ultra right, Communist elements must continue and assured the Congress that the American people join the people of India in their struggle for peace and justice.

During the Congress, Lightfoot was frequently in the company of, and allied with, the leader of the delegation of the CP of the Soviet Union (CPUSU), Boris H. Ponomarev, member of the Secretariat and Head of the International Department, Central Committee, CPUSU. Throughout the Congress, Lightfoot and Ponomarev were in the forefront of the fight against the influence of the CP of China.

Following the CP of India Congress, Lightfoot traveled to Moscow, Russia, where he was warmly received by the leadership of the CPSU in appreciation for his efforts, to counter the influence of the CP of China and to retain the CP of India within the sphere of influence of the CPSU.

Lightfoot planned to leave Moscow during the first week in January, 1965, for a tour of African countries, where he hoped to contact national leaders as well as leaders of the CPs of those countries. He was briefed by the CPSU on various African countries prior to his departure.

Lightfoot expected to visit Ghana first where he hoped to meet with President Kwame Nkrumah and Shirley Graham Du Bois, a former American now residing in Ghana, who was considered to be a pro-Chinese Marxist. Lightfoot is scheduled next to visit Guinea and from there to Kenya to see Jomo Kenyatta, President of Kenya. Reportedly, one reason for Lightfoot's visit to Kenya is that there have been numerous rumors that Kenyatta is spent and is no longer a revolutionary.

Lightfoot will also try to visit Algeria to see President Ahmed Ben Bella, whom the CPSU leadership has characterized as "cooperative" although not a communist. Lightfoot would like to visit Great Britain if he can secure permission to visit that country. Following this, Lightfoot will return to the United States. He expects this tour to take approximately two and one-half weeks.

The Rumanians have their own ideas concerning the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance (COMECON), the East European equivalent for the Common Market, and they want their own markets. The Rumanians might be characterized as neo-Titoists or, more correctly, nationalists. While the Communist Party of China is exploiting this situation and taking advantage of the Rumanian position in the socialist camp and in COMECON, the CPSU cannot use force or coercion.

DECEMBER, 1964

The following information was supplied by sources which have furnished reliable information in the past.

A number of groups of military officers from East European countries were in Moscow, Russia, during December, 1964. Each group was composed of approximately twelve officers with about three or four officers from each branch of the military services. These officers were relatively young, with most being from thirty to thirty-five years old. None of the officers appeared to be above the rank of Colonel except for one Naval Captain. Each group was accompanied by a Russian officer. The groups were in Moscow for about one week at different times. Countries represented were Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria and the German Democratic Republic.

The significance of these groups is not known. However, they were quartered in the hotel of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union which is only used for the accommodation of Communist Party people in Moscow on Party business.

Highly-placed representatives of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) consider that the Communist Party of China (CPC) gave its reaction to a meeting held to discuss international communist unity in Moscow, Russia, following the 47th anniversary of the Russian Revolution in an editorial which appeared in "Hongqi" ("Red Flag"), the theoretical organ of the Central Committee, CPC. This editorial not only attacked former Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, but the CPSU and the international movement. The CPC charged the CPSU with betraying the Soviet people and openly asked the Soviet people to overthrow the new leadership of the CPSU. The contents of this editorial were broadcast for days by the CPC radio in Russian so that Soviet people might hear it. Every day since then the CPC has broadcast or published some new material in the Russian language on the same theme.

The Albanian Party of Labor (APL) has repeated the CPC reaction to the unity talks. Enver Hoxha, First Secretary of the APL, at the time of the celebration of Albania's liberation, totally ignored this anniversary and delivered a speech attacking "Khrushchev, Khrushchevism, and the Soviet people." He stated that other communist parties should get rid of their present leadership so new Marxist parties and leaders would arise. Hoxha went so far as to name factional groups and leaders in his speech. He called for the removal of Leonid Brezhnev, First Secretary, Central Committee, CPSU; and Aleksey Kosygin, Chairman of the Council of Ministers in the Soviet Union.

A ranking official of the Secretariat of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) recently made the following observations regarding the Workers Party of Vietnam:

The Workers Party of Vietnam is currently aligned with the Communist Party of China (CPC); however, there are indications which might be interpreted as a "slight possibility of a breakthrough" for the CPSU. It is possible that the Workers Party of Vietnam will participate in the March 1, 1965, Preparatory or Editorial Commission meeting in Moscow, Russia, which is to prepare for a later meeting of all communist and workers parties.

In the recent past a conference, of an undisclosed nature, was held in Hanoi, Democratic Republic of Vietnam. At this conference the delegation of the CPC made a determined effort to isolate the delegation of the CPSU. The Workers Party of Vietnam rejected all proposals to isolate the Soviet delegation. While there are strong forces within the Workers Party of Vietnam exercising pressures on behalf of the CPC, HO Chi-minh, Chairman of the Workers Party of Vietnam, for one, is fighting hard and has what the Soviets consider "the correct line."

YURI SERGEOVITCH IVANOV

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, in late December, 1964, advised as follows:

As of December, 1964, it was learned that Yuri Sergeovitch Ivanov, who had been serving as an English translator and security officer in the International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), had now been assigned to the Diplomatic Service of the USSR. Ivanov's present assignment is with the USSR Diplomatic Staff in Israel.

Ivanov is known to speak perfect English and based on past contacts and association with him could easily pass himself off as an Englishman or a native of an English-speaking country. His present assignment is of particular interest in view of the fact that in the past he has given a definite impression of being a "real anti-Semitic" and has been known to make a number of anti-Semitic remarks.

INFORMATION CONCERNING ACTIVITIES OF COMMUNIST PARTY, USA DELEGATION MEMBERS IN USSR FOR NOVEMBER 7, 1964, CELEBRATION

As of the latter part of December, 1964, the following individuals were still in the USSR after having traveled there in late October or early November, 1964, in order to be present at the 47th Anniversary of the October Revolution on November 7, 1964, in Moscow, USSR:

Phil Bart and wife Connie
William L. Patterson

James Torney
Jim West

b7c

All of the above-noted individuals traveled extensively throughout the USSR as guests of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU). The Russians provided them with medical treatment and hospitalization where found necessary. All of the delegates were furnished with translators and given winter clothing as well as a number of gifts plus spending money. In addition, each and every delegate or his wife was presented with a watch--the men received wafer thin gold watches and the women 18 carat gold watches. In this latter regard, when the watches were presented by Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, CPSU, they were given in the name of the Presidium of the CPSU to each individual member of the delegation.

In late December, 1964, on behalf of the entire Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) delegation, Phil Bart prepared a letter to the Central Committee, CPSU, in which he thanked the Russians and the CPSU for all that had been done for him and the rest of the delegation.

In regard to the specific activities of the above members of the delegation, the following was learned:

Phil and Connie Bart

During their travels in the USSR, Phil Bart became ill and was hospitalized for a time in Tashkent, Uzbek Soviet Socialist Republic. When the Barts are prepared to leave the USSR, they plan to travel to the German Democratic Republic (GDR) and then continue on to Paris, France, before returning to the United States. This wish of the Barts had been made known to the CPSU and they agreed. In addition, contact was made with representatives of the Socialist Unity Party of Germany (SUPG) and they had agreed to accept the Barts for a visit; however, they requested that such travel to the GDR not be performed prior to January 3, 1965, because of the holiday.

William L. Patterson

William Patterson, during his current stay in the USSR, spent approximately four weeks in the hospital. Based on the results of the examinations and treatment given to him at this time, the Soviet doctors recommended that Patterson not engage in his planned travel to Africa.

While in Moscow, Patterson was in frequent contact with his [redacted] who is married to a Cuban national who is a student at the Patrice Lumumba Friendship of the Peoples University, Moscow. [redacted] has a desperately [redacted] and would like very much to be able to come to the United States with this [redacted] however, she is running into problems with the United States Government.

b7C

Patterson also traveled to Leningrad where it was learned he had visited with another [redacted] a [redacted] by a different marriage which apparently occurred in the USSR a number of years ago. He later brought this [redacted] to Moscow and introduced her to [redacted] who had not previously known of the existence of this other family.

b6
b7C

After returning to Moscow from his Leningrad visit, Patterson had upset the Russians a bit by demanding a larger apartment for his [redacted] is approximately 28 years of age, apparently a widow with a family, and lives in a very small apartment.

b6

[redacted]

Both of these individuals were hospitalized when in the USSR. The Russian doctors are considering trying some neurological treatment on Burt but are of the opinion that he is definitely a mental case.

b6
b7C

[redacted] also had upset their Russian hosts with the request that when they were ready to leave the USSR that they be given a paid trip to travel "all over Europe", not only to socialist but to Western European countries.

[] claimed that he had Gus Hall's approval for this request and desired to learn about waterfront activities.

Both of the [] were hospitalized for various periods while in Moscow. In [] case, he was hospitalized after he returned from a trip to Siberia after he came down with a severe case of the flu. His illness was apparently so severe that he was placed in an isolation ward and for a week his wife was unable to see him.

While in Moscow, [] also realized that his house mortgage payment, car payment, and GI insurance premium were all due. He was desperate and pleaded that some communication be gotten back to the United States and in this connection he wrote a note addressed to []

[] wherein he requested that that individual handle these matters. The note he wrote was placed in an envelope addressed to Dorothy Healey in Los Angeles and turned over to a CP, USA representative, then also in Moscow. This CP, USA representative later carried this note to East Berlin where with the cooperation of a member of the International Department, SUPG, it was carried into West Berlin and mailed on December 21, 1964.

In general, it was learned that the [] were somewhat of a problem to the Russians. They came with the attitude of getting all they could for nothing. For example, [] is an allergy patient and had seen dozens of doctors previously in the United States and they could not really help her much. However, she kept going to the Russian clinics and made life so miserable for the doctors and everyone else that they finally agreed to hospitalize her. Then, in addition, just to get all she could, she had complete dental work although she had to secure the Russian stainless steel fillings.

b7C

When the [] finally do depart from the USSR, they desire to go to Czechoslovakia and the GDR. A CP, USA representative in Moscow succeeded in getting permission for them to make these visits; however, both the CP of Czechoslovakia and the SUPG requested that they not perform this travel until sometime after January 3, 1965, because of the holiday season.

b6

Jim West

Jim West created few, if any, real problems for the Russians while in the USSR. He did not ask for anything except medical treatment although he did participate in several trips. In general, he was "self-denying and acting as a martyr." He was getting extensive medical treatment and the Russian doctors may perform surgery or may perform some skin grafts on him. He was not optimistic regarding his physical condition and refused to write or discuss his health or future in communications with his wife in Chicago.

When West completes his stay in the USSR, he would like to stop over for three to five days in Czechoslovakia and Poland. In both of these cases, the CPs of these countries have already agreed to such stops, but here again requested no travel before January 3, 1965.

James Torney

Of all the CP, USA delegates, James Torney reportedly was the least demanding. He did not want to visit other socialist countries although he did request that he be allowed to travel to Poland to see his sick [redacted] a former American and [redacted] or Betty Gannett in New York.

Through the efforts of a CP, USA representative then in Moscow, Torney did travel to Poland in mid-December, 1964. He carried with him credentials identifying him as a member of the National Committee, CP, USA, and as the husband of the Editor of "Political Affairs," official theoretical organ of the CP, USA. In the credentials it was noted that Torney would like to see his [redacted] and that cooperation of the Polish United Workers Party (PZWP) would be greatly appreciated. Apparently the credentials served Torney's purposes because upon arriving in Warsaw he was met at the airport by a Party official and his [redacted]. Torney later advised that he had a pleasant five-day visit with his [redacted]. He further noted that because of his visit with [redacted] and his status as set forth in the credentials as a leading member of the CP, USA, he was sure that his [redacted] would probably now receive better treatment from the PZWP.

NEGOTIATION FOR AND FINAL SUBSIDY AGREED TO BY COMMUNIST PARTY OF
THE SOVIET UNION FOR COMMUNIST PARTY, USA, 1965

In early December, 1964, a representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) arrived in Moscow, USSR, for the main purpose of negotiating with the CP of the Soviet Union (CPSU) the matter of a 1965 subsidy for the American Party. In line with this, the CP, USA representative immediately after his arrival spent the next several days in the preparation of a detailed and extensive memorandum in which he outlined the exact financial needs of the CP, USA for the year 1965. When this document was finally completed and in a form suitable for presentation to the Central Committee, CPSU, it consisted of 12 pages and contained the entire basis for a subsidy request which was for the amount of $1,485,000.00.

In this 12 page document noted above, the following items of expenses for the CP, USA in 1965 were noted as the justification for the figure which had been set forth:

For work in the Negro freedom movement and work in the South --	$ 250,000.00
For political activity -----	200,000.00
For defense, including court costs and fines-----	200,000.00
For subsidy of Party supported magazines and periodicals-----	100,000.00
For literature and throwaways and other propaganda material to be issued by the Party-----	100,000.00
For Party mailing service, New York City-----	50,000.00

100-428091- 4497

ENCLOSURE

For the renewal and purchase of new press for paper and print shop --	$ 200,000.00
For daily paper -----	300,000.00
For support of Mexican and Puerto Rican minority groups in the United States -----	15,000.00
For support and upkeep of old and sick comrades with no Social Security or pensions -----	50,000.00
For possible use of American Marxist Institute, New York -----	20,000.00
Total	$1,485,000.00

When the above document had been completed, it was submitted to the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, in Moscow. Following a review by that Department, it was arranged that preliminary discussions were to begin with the CP, USA representative on this request for aid and it was stated that the American representative would be meeting with one Dimitri Shevlyagin, a deputy to Boris N. Ponomarev, the Head of the International Department and a member of the Secretariat, Central Committee, CPSU. However, the CP, USA representative refused to discuss these financial matters with Shevlyagin and made it clear that since this matter was of utmost importance to his Party he, therefore, must discuss it with one of the leading Party functionaries, a member of the Central Committee. In addition it was learned that this American representative had in the past some difficulties arising over a difference in political opinions with Shevlyagin and since that time he had refused to deal with that CPSU official. As a result of the CP, USA representative's refusal to deal with the individual designated, arrangements were thus made for him to meet with Mikhail A. Suslov, a member of the Presidium and Secretariat of the Central Committee, CPSU, as Ponomarev, the person in the past who had handled such negotiations with the CP, USA, was then in India attending a Congress of the CP of India.

The scheduled meeting with Suslov occurred during the first half of December at Central Committee Headquarters in Moscow. Others who were present in addition to Suslov and the CP, USA representative were (First Name Unknown) Belikov, a deputy of Ponomarev's; Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department; and Igor Michaelov, an employee and official translator of the International Department. When the meeting with Suslov opened, he cordially greeted the CP, USA representative and a friendly though tough discussion was carried out on the financial request. Suslov noted that he had read the memorandum submitted by the CP, USA representative on this matter. In discussing the memorandum, Suslov made several inquiries and included among them was the following. For one thing, Suslov wanted to know about the possibility of a daily paper being again published by the CP, USA. He stated that this had been mentioned as a possibility in previous years and no action as yet had been taken. In response to this inquiry, the CP, USA representative noted that such a daily paper is now on the Party's agenda and in fact negotiations are now being carried out with the Socialist Unity Party of Germany for some new presses and equipment which will enable the CP, USA to reach this objective. Suslov then noted that every effort must be made to convince the CP, USA that a daily paper is most important and urgent. He remarked, "How can you function without one? If only for the purpose of keeping your members informed, such a paper is necessary."

Another point raised by Suslov and one which he stated would precondition any granting of funds was his inquiry about James Jackson of "The Worker" always coming to the United Nations in New York and complaining of and speaking about shortages of funds for the paper. He stated that just two weeks ago Jackson had come to the United Nations and asked for an emergency loan of $10,000 and stated that the paper would fold without it. Suslov indicated that such requests must stop and that if the CP, USA expects to receive a substantial subsidy based on the budget submitted, then they must see to it that Jackson no longer makes such appeals.

Upon conclusion of the discussion of this matter, at this time Suslov remarked as follows: "You know our income has been reduced. China and Korea have stopped paying into the international fund which supports non-socialist country Parties. Our expenses are increasing and we must also support many new and younger Parties. We will consider your figures on aid. I can't say or guarantee that you will get all that you request but I will consult with our leading comrades."

Suslov then advised that he would meet again with this CP, USA representative after a decision had been made on the amount of subsidy which would be granted.

In late December, 1964, the CP, USA representative was informed that a second meeting had been arranged for him with Suslov and that this meeting would be held at Central Committee Headquarters. As a result, on December 27, 1964, this CP, USA representative, accompanied by Mostovets and Michaelov, proceeded to the Central Committee building and the office of Suslov. This meeting was opened by Suslov and at this time he made the following remarks: "We have taken into consideration the needs of your Party and the fact that you are planning to rebuild your press and the fact that you may hold a convention next year. So, on the basis of all the facts, we have decided to grant your request for material aid and we will give your Party in 1965 one million dollars."

"Please convey to comrade Hall that this amount is not an all time precedent or habit. We just don't have such amounts or reserves. We do have difficulties at home and these will be increasing in the future. Finances will be a problem for a long time to come. The Central Committee, however, understands your situation and has discussed your appeal in a very favorable spirit. Despite our own difficulties, we have decided to render you this aid."

"I and the rest of the Presidium of the Central Committee, CPSU, send our personal greetings and warmest regards to comrade Gus and other members of your Central Committee. I assure you we understand your struggle and please convey this to comrade Gus."

SOVIET UNION

In discussion with Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), which was held during December, 1964, in Moscow, USSR, this individual advised a representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) that for this individual's personal use and in order to insure that certain pamphlets, books, clippings and other material which was being sent officially to the CPSU was received, he should direct it to the following address:

Hotel
Post Office 132
Moscow, USSR

Mostovets then noted that this mail box is located in the Central Committee Hotel and is reserved for official use. Accordingly, whenever mail is received at that box, the Central Committee will immediately know who has sent it and there will be no delay in its delivery. In addition, Mostovets provided another address which was as follows:

Intourist
Post Office 600
Moscow, USSR

According to Mostovets, this address can be used for personal correspondence and will enable members of Party delegations from the United States to communicate with family and friends. The using of this address will insure delivery in the future of such correspondence and allow individuals to retain contact with their families.

DISCUSSION BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE LEADERSHIP OF THE SOCIALIST UNITY PARTY OF GERMANY ON THE MATTER OF GERMAN RELATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS, DECEMBER, 1964

A source, who has furnished reliable information
in the past, in early January, 1965, advised as follows:

Germany
During the latter part of December, 1964, a meeting was held in Berlin, German Democratic Republic (GDR), at which time discussions took place on matters pertaining to German relations and international affairs. Present at the time and participating in the discussions were Comrade Hermann Axen, a member of the Central Committee and Politburo of the Socialist Unity Party of Germany (SUPG) and the Editor-in-Chief of "Neues Deutschland," the official organ of the Central Committee, SUPG; Comrade (first name unknown) Geggel
(phonetic), a SUPG leader; and, Comrade (first name unknown)
Rehagen, a SUPG leader and member of its Ideological Department. Axen led off the discussion and the essence of his remarks is as follows:

Greetings from the Central Committee of the SUPG.

First of all, on the question of the political situation in the world and particularly about our relations with West Germany and the United States.

The Multilateral Nuclear Force (MNF) being proposed by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) is a horrible thing. We know that at the last meeting of NATO, Georges Pompidou, Premier of France, addressed the group and warned NATO by quoting President Charles DeGaulle as saying, "That if you insist on MNF, you will never unite Germany, it will forever remain divided." If this MNF idea is accepted, this would lead to war by giving the West German militarists a finger on the trigger of a nuclear bomb. Maybe you don't know their purpose. As soon as they get the finger on the bomb in MNF, they will practice brinkmanship and will make John Foster Dulles, the former United States Secretary of State, look like a piker.

Why do you think the West Germans want to abolish the Statute of Limitations on Nazi war criminals? It is because they are getting ready to rearm and want these former Nazis and former generals back. This new law which they are trying to put over is no accident and is related to the rearmament of West Germany. If it is passed, all of those ex-generals, criminals, and butchers living under new names, both in Germany and all over the world, will crawl out of the woodwork and once again come out in the open.

There is a struggle today in the Western Alliance on the question of East-West trade. Many do not fall for the West German line of don't trade with the East. DeGaulle, for one, is in favor of expanding this trade, and he knows that West Germany is only shouting because it wants this trade for themselves. The British are doing the same thing and are now even going beyond the arguments and are preparing treaties. Only the United States is being fooled. Don't they know that we are doing half a billion dollar trade a year with West Germany and that they don't want anyone else to get it? On this expansion of trade, the allies are getting wise to the German monopolists.

1965 marks the 800th Anniversary of the Leipzig Fair. We are planning a big fair and already have received many commitments, both from firms and countries. This is proof that the plans to isolate the GDR have failed because more importers and exporters are coming to the fair in 1965 than ever before.

Now, on the question of the East German and West German political situation. For us the German question is most important and the biggest problem is revengism. The real head of the most important Party, the Christian Democratic Union, in West Germany is Dr. Konrad Adenauer. He has grouped around him leading Nazis and the most brutal revenge seekers who would not hesitate to start another World War. This is the group pushing for the law dealing with the Statute of Limitations before the Bundestag, the Federal Republic of Germany's Parliament. Ironically, May 20th is the anniversary of the end of World War II and this is the day they want to pass the law which will invoke a Statute of Limitations on war criminals. Do American World War veterans, especially those who fought in Europe, ever give thought to the fact that the Germans who were their enemies and were shooting at them and who committed the tortures are going to go scot-free? Perhaps it is easy for them to forget since the United States escaped the ravages of war. Maybe as a nation and as a people they cannot remember the havoc and casualties, as their's were insignificant. However, in the next war lots of people will get hurt, first of all the Germans. The Germans no longer have room to maneuver--where can they go? Nor will the United States escape during the next war from the bombings and nuclear attacks. Distances no longer mean anything. Our Party, I want you to know, is fighting against war and a revengist war by Germans armed with American weapons.

Do the American people know that there are no other people, except those in Bonn, who would introduce such a law which would forgive murder and other war crimes? No other country has forgiven murder, but this is what they plan to do. Already there is a campaign against this law developing among the people all over Europe, especially in those countries which were invaded by Germany and where there are millions of victims of Nazi and fascist crimes. Even in West Germany there is a campaign developing against this law.

Can the question of the recognition of the GDR be raised in the United States? It is now being raised in some other countries. Perhaps such a campaign for recognition in Europe suggesting they take a second look at the GDR might get some attention in the United States. Why must the old patterns of World War I and the cold war remain forever?

At this point Axen's remarks were concluded and Comrade Geggdl spoke. The essence of Geggdl's remarks is as follows:

~~TOP SECRET~~

DISCUSSION BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE
LEADERSHIP OF THE SUPG ON THE MATTER
OF GERMAN RELATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL

Greetings from Comrade Ulbricht, Comrade Florin, and other members of our Central Committee.

Revengeism and anti-communism are deep-seated in West Germany. This goes back a few generations, and I am sorry to say that such influences even penetrate the rank of the working class also.

The Social Democratic Party, headed by Willy Brandt, in West Germany is steeped in chauvinism and revengeism. At the Social Democratic Party Congress of last November they hung up a big map of Germany which contained all of the frontiers of 1937. Under the map they had the following words inscribed: "This is our heritage, this is our task." What did this indicate? This indicated they seek restoration of these boundaries.

Today, the West German monopolists, with the help of United States imperialism, have become very strong and prosperous. In the GDR you hear the boast everyday, "Who lost the war, not we." Even the United States wants our money and wants to sell us armaments. Yes, the English and the French are even borrowing from us. Yes, we poor Germans lost the war!" This great power, chauvinism or revengeism, is very dangerous and could lead the world to another catastrophe.

Today, there are sharp contradictions between the capitalist portion and the socialist portion of Germany. Up until three years ago there was not a barrier between these two factions and all one had to do was walk across the street. However, since I do not want to be one-sided, I will say that among the trade unionists and masses of people in West Germany, there are millions of people against nuclear war. However, because of a weak class consciousness on their part, there is still a lot of revengeism which often overwhelms the class feeling of the Germans.

At the moment, the biggest task of the Central Committee, SUPG, is to unmask the secret preparations for war in the Federal Republic of Germany. We also have the task of showing the West German working class the class roots of revengeism.

DISCUSSION BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE
LEADERSHIP OF THE SUPG ON THE MATTER
OF GERMAN RELATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL

At this point, let me describe revengism again and see if I can make it clear. In West Germany today this means "Correct the outcome of World War II and restore the old leaders." In essence, this means nuclear war.

On August 13, 1961, we put up our boundary which you may, if you please, call the "wall." This was our reaction to the open forms of aggression. The West German monopolists, with the help of their American counterparts, charged we wanted to sell out to the USSR. Of course, this is not so. Now this line has failed. The West Germans then tried economic pressures, but this failed also and they are beginning to realize that it will not work. We answered this infiltration of our ideology. We did not isolate ourselves but instead answered these revengists aggressively. We answered we will keep out the jack boot of the storm troopers as well as the soft shoe of subversion. They do not "recognize" us and, according to them, we do not exist. But since we put up our boundary on August 13, 1961, we have proved that we do exist and more; that is, we coexist with them.

We are making progress in the GDR and the people in West Germany are now demanding a liberalization of the Bonn regime. You undoubtedly know that the people in West Germany forced the removal of notorious Nazis such as (first name unknown) Krueger and others.

In the GDR we are proud to say that there is little nationalism, no revengism or racism.

This concluded the remarks of Geggdl, and he was followed by Comrade Rehagen. The essence of Rehagen's remarks is as follows:

The West Germans have been hiding the truth from their people since 1945, we can say, about the existence of fascism, militarism, etc. They even have been hiding the truth of these things even before World War II. They have eliminated reference to this from their history books; they do not talk about it at all and they raise their youth in ignorance.

~~TOP SECRET~~

DISCUSSION BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE
LEADERSHIP OF THE SUPG ON THE MATTER
OF GERMAN RELATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL

In West Germany there are two secret Ministries, the Refugee Ministry and Ministry of All German Question. The cost for the operation of these Ministries is covered in the budget of the West German Government. What are the aims of these Ministries? First of all, it is to spearhead the destruction of the GDR; next, they want part of the territory now belonging to Poland; thirdly, they want sections belonging to the Soviet Union; and last, they want parts of Czechoslovakia. We know what they are talking about in these Ministries, as they plot the war of revengism. Who are the people who run these Ministries? They are from the German trusts and represent I. G. Farben, Krupp, and Seemes.

On the proposed law dealing with the Statute of Limitations on war crimes. This is not yet a law, but there is a good possibility that it will be made into law. Its enactment means that criminals and mass murderers, like (first name unknown) Boermann, Hitler's deputy, who is in hiding, can reappear in public and go scot-free. We are fighting against this law and insist there is no time limit on murder. If the American people also protest this law, it might help in the unmasking of the fascists in West Germany. As you know, many thousands of fascists and SS criminals live underground in West Germany and abroad. They will come out in the open when this law is passed.

What do we do with our former fascists and Nazis in the GDR? We make a determination between Nazi leaders and the rank and file. We are not too blind to know that all were somewhat or a bit Nazi. We say, let the past be the past and if you are now for peace and freedom, it is all right with us and you can lead a normal life. But if we find a leader who was a criminal or murderer, this is a different story. We do not give such people positions in the Cabinet or in the military--we lock them up or execute them.

Some time in March there is going to be an international conference somewhere in a Western country for protesting against this new law dealing with the Statute of Limitations on war crimes in West Germany. There will be representatives from every part of the globe at this conference and they will demand that this law not be adopted as it is contrary to a clause of the United Nations.

In the GDR we have a multi-Party coalition. There is an economic basis for such coalitions. Some of these Parties operate auxiliary enterprises that cooperate with industries that operate for the state. There are also private entrepreneurs. For example, there has been now for years a private entrepreneur who has been building metal parts for our ships. He has done a wonderful job and continues to do so and no one interferes with him.

The SUPG does not camouflage its cooperation with other political parties in the GDR. For example, there is the Christian Democratic Union, a Protestant political organization. Dr. Lothar Bolz, Deputy Chairman, Foreign Affairs, GDR, is from the Christian Democratic Union. The head of the Ministry of Health in the GDR is from the small owners party which represents small property owners. There are also independent parties like the Peasant Party which represents the people in the rural areas. All of these different parties, in our opinion, have a genuine function. However, while we do cooperate with these other parties, we, as communists, do not give up our basic aims.

Presently, we are carrying on a bigger trade with West Germany because the socialist countries have not been able to live up to agreements to supply certain things contracted for.

In the GDR, our socialist agriculture has made tremendous progress during the last three to four years. The weather has been favorable and this did help. But there were other factors that helped this progress.

Why has the GDR had economic difficulties in the past? Here, you must remember that people in the past, when they thought of Germany, always considered it as one big Ruhr. They forgot that some sections of Germany were backward and underdeveloped. Much of the GDR is made up of such underdeveloped and backward agricultural areas. Therefore, in some areas we had to start from scratch, particularly in agriculture and to an extent in industry. This is why our progress up to now has been so significant.

As to the shortages in skilled labor, we are hundreds of thousands of workers short. Even with the rising crop of new scientists and the like, we will in the next few years be 350,000 workers short unless we can speed it up with automation. This we are trying to do as fast as is humanly possible.

Purpose:

To recommend furnishing to the White House information received by NY 694-S* from Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), relative to the Soviets' appraisal of President Johnson.

Background: Russia

On 12/18/64 Gus Hall met with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko at the headquarters of the Soviet Mission to the United Nations in New York City. On 12/21/64 Hall told NY 694-S* that his meeting with Gromyko has been a "complete waste of time" inasmuch as he had conferred with Gromyko without an interpreter and Hall believed that Gromyko did not understand much of what Hall had said. However, on 12/30/64, Hall told NY 694-S* that although Gromyko had said nothing startling, Hall recalled that Gromyko had made the following comments concerning President Johnson.

The Soviets are not impressed with President Johnson and do not expect him to take any important action relative to easing the cold war. President Johnson "does not evaluate or think ahead on important problems" and is totally different from former President Kennedy who was very good in making long-range plans. However, President Johnson has one thing in his favor and that is his ability to "solve, quickly, short-range immediate problems."

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached letter containing Gromyko's comments concerning President Johnson be sent to the Honorable Bill D. Moyers, Special Assistant to the President, the White House. In view of the fact that the information pertaining to President Johnson is of a personal nature, no additional dissemination is contemplated.

The following information was supplied by sources which have furnished reliable information in the past.

Robert Franklin Williams, who is a well-known Negro integration leader, fled to Cuba following the issuance of a warrant for his arrest on a charge of kidnapping which grew out of a racial incident in Monroe, North Carolina, during August, 1961. Williams is developing into a rabid, outspoken African nationalist.

Carlos Rafael Rodriguez, a minister in the Cuban Government and a member of the Directorate of the United Party of the Socialist Revolution, remarked that to his knowledge Williams has not yet returned to Cuba and is believed by Rodriguez to be still in Peking, China. He further noted that Cuba is not entirely happy with Williams' return to Cuba, but at the present time he knows of nothing that can be done about this matter or what can be done to quiet him down.

INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

While in the Soviet Union on Solo Mission 17 during 12/64, CG 5824-S* conferred with several officials of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), who made the following comments relative to the status of the Editorial Commission meeting scheduled to be held in Moscow, Russia, on 3/1/65 to prepare for a world-wide meeting of communist parties (CPs).

It is almost certain that the Editorial Commission meeting which had been rescheduled from 12/15/64, will be held on 3/1/65. The decision to postpone the meeting followed a favorable response from over fifty CPs throughout the world which agreed to the postponement, but informed the CPSU that this must be the last postponement.

The time now intervening before the scheduled 3/1/65 meeting will be used by the CPSU to convince the various CPs that the CPSU will not surrender any of its principles. The CPSU will also seek to convince those CPs which are hesitant concerning attendance at the Editorial Commission meeting to change their positions and attend.

As of late 12/64, 17 of the 26 CPs invited by the CPSU to attend the Editorial Commission meeting have accepted the invitation. However, the CPs of China, Albania, Japan, Korea, Indonesia, Rumania and Vietnam have refused to participate. In addition, the CPs of Great Britain and Italy have not responded to the invitation. However, the CPSU is confident that these two CPs will be present when the meeting convenes.

The CPSU is currently carrying on bilateral discussions with the Rumanians in an effort to convince them that they should participate in the meeting. The Rumanians, although not in total agreement with the Chinese position, feel that it is impossible to hold any kind of international meeting without the participation of the Chinese and the absence of the Chinese from such a meeting would show the world that there is a split in the international communist movement.

Re: SOLO

The CPSU has circulated a letter to the various CPs pointing out that the Editorial Commission meeting has not been called for the purpose of excommunicating any Party, but rather to take note of changes in the world situation so that a determination can be made as to how these changes "can outlive the general tasks of the communist movement."

In preparation for the Editorial Commission meeting, Soviet theoreticians are preparing documents which will be presented at the meeting. All CPs will receive copies of these documents and may offer their amendments.

The first session of the Editorial Commission meeting will not attempt to deal with substantive questions. The general aim will be first to decide what matters should be the subject of the discussion and identification will be made of those items on which agreement can be reached.

OBSERVATIONS:

There has been considerable speculation throughout the world as to the status of the Editorial Commission meeting and the information obtained by CG 5824-S* concerning this matter should be of considerable interest to officials of our Government.

ACTION:

Attached for approval are appropriate letters to the White House, the Secretary of State, Director McCone of Central Intelligence Agency and the Acting Attorney General.

Carlos Rafael Rodriguez, a minister in the Government of Cuba and a member of the Directorate of the United Party of the Socialist Revolution (PURS), was in Moscow, Russia, in December, 1964. While there he made a number of comments, the essence of which were as follows:

The economic situation in Cuba is "rough" but gradually improving and the government is slowly getting the economy under control. More emphasis is being placed on the teaching of Socialist discipline and the workers are learning. Prospects for a larger and better sugar crop in 1965 are excellent.

Efficiency has been developed in the cutting and hauling of sugar cane to the mills. The introduction of a very good cane cutting machine developed by the Soviet Union will be of considerable help in this regard.

Since Cuba is a small nation, it must be alert at all times. Where a big power can negotiate and threaten to gain time, Cuba cannot.

Cuba could not sign the test ban treaty without a hundred per cent guarantee from all the big powers, friends, as well as enemies, including the United States.

There is an inner-Party crisis within the PURS arising from what is known as the "Ordoqui case." Joaquin Ordoqui, former Quartermaster General of the Cuban Army and a member of

The "old-time Party people" hope and believe the circumstantial evidence being used against him is untrue, but believe it will be difficult to overcome. They believe that if the case against Ordoqui stands up it will reflect upon all the old communists in Cuba.

There is a belief that some of the young original people who were with Fidel Castro in the July 26th Movement were responsible for the Ordoqui affair since these young people use their imagination and take satisfaction in such tragedy. There is also a belief that this whole matter is a "frame-up" by these young people to destroy the old guard Party people who, to some extent, still hold Fidel Castro in check.

Rodriguez gave indications that he was worried about his own future and the over-all effects which could result from this matter.

PURPOSE:

To recommend that information obtained by CG 5824-S* concerning efforts by the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), to mobilize all communist parties of the world in a broad campaign against the enforcement of the McCarran Act be disseminated to the White House, Secretary of State Rusk, Director of Central Intelligence Agency McCone and the Acting Attorney General.

BACKGROUND:

You will recall that during December, 1964, the Department of Justice announced that it planned to proceed with the prosecution of the CPUSA under the provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950, which is also known as the McCarran Act. As a result, the CPUSA is endeavoring to mobilize all communist parties in a broad campaign against the enforcement of the McCarran Act.

CG 5824-S*, while in the Soviet Union on his recent Solo mission, conferred with officials of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), as well as with officials of other fraternal parties who were visiting in the Soviet Union, relative to the CPUSA's campaign against the McCarran Act. CG 5824-S*, at the instructions of the CPUSA, told these officials that the CPUSA hopes that as a result of this campaign against the McCarran Act, the White House, Department of Justice and United States embassies will be deluged with telegrams, petitions and delegations making charges concerning the alleged injustice of the McCarran Act.

On 12/27/64 the Presidium, Central Committee, CPSU, met and voted to conduct a broad campaign against the McCarran Act in solidarity with the CPUSA. The Soviets find it difficult to understand the action of the United States Government in initiating prosecutive action against the CPUSA in light of the alleged defeat of the "political right." Some Soviet officials expressed the opinion that it is possible that the United States is planning a war and may be trying to "strike the first blow" against the communists. The CPSU will send a circular letter to other communist parties apprising them of the campaign of the CPUSA against the McCarran Act and expects that these other communist parties will institute a similar campaign.

Officials of the CPs of Uruguay, Chile and Colombia have promised the CPUSA that they will participate in the campaign against the McCarran Act in their countries. In this connection, Rodney Arismendi, a functionary of the CP of Uruguay, promised that demonstrations would be conducted in Uruguay in front of "United States institutions" and in factories "controlled by United States money."

A. Sobolev, Acting Editor-in-Chief of the "World Marxist Review," official theoretical organ of the world communist movement, and highest ranking member of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) on the staff recently made the following comments concerning the attitude of the CPSU regarding the Communist Party (CP) of Italy:

One of these days there will be a "big explosion" in the CP of Italy and "it will be torn asunder." There are a number of groups in the CP of Italy and it is being kept together because these factions are making compromises. There is a right wing group led by Giorgio Amendola, which has a shade of "reformism" in it. Another step or two in that direction and this group will no longer be communist. There is another group led by Pietro Ingrao who is close to Amendola but not completely aligned with him. There is a third group which works within the Party but follows a dogmatic position. Then there is the group led by Luigi Longo, General Secretary of the CP of Italy. This group is in "the middle." It follows Leninist forms of organization but takes a position on the right when it comes to tactical problems.

The big danger within the CP of Italy is the demand for autonomy, not only in regard to the international currents but also in regard to regional autonomy. Regional CP organizations in the north of Italy are demanding the right to decide and do things for themselves.

Following the removal of Nikita S. Khrushchev from his positions of leadership in the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) and the Soviet Government in October, 1964, Luis Corvalan, General Secretary of the Communist Party of Chile, traveled to the Soviet Union to receive a firsthand briefing from the CPSU leaders on this development. Corvalan was received by CPSU leaders who furnished him the same explanations for Khrushchev's removal as given to representatives of other parties.

After sharp discussion and a stormy session, Corvalan refused to accept the explanations for Khrushchev's removal given by the CPSU. Subsequently, Corvalan did not join a delegation of Latin-American communist leaders which traveled to Moscow, Russia, in December, 1964. Another member of the leadership of the Communist Party of Chile was designated by Corvalan to represent the Communist Party of Chile in this delegation since Corvalan did not desire to return to Moscow.

On January 8, 1965, I personally met with CG 5824-S* under secure conditions to welcome him home from his latest Solo mission. We had a most fruitful briefing and discussion and the informant's spirit and attitude toward the Bureau continue to be excellent.

During the course of our conversation, the informant asked me to transmit a Christmas greeting to the Director on his part along with the informant's best wishes and regrets that he could not convey his sentiments to the Director at an earlier date due to circumstances.

The informant stated that he purchased this card in Moscow and that he has taken the liberty of expressing his sentiments and high esteem to the Director in a personal note on this card.

I personally received this card and am forwarding it at the earliest possible time. The initials contained on this card were placed on the envelope in my presence and immediately before he gave the envelope containing the card to me.

PEGGY DENNIS

It will be recalled that Peggy Dennis had recently indicated that she would like in 1965 to be able to make a trip as special correspondent to the socialist countries. She has not, however, specifically indicated to what countries, with the exception of the USSR, she would like to travel nor has she provided any dates when she would travel. Gus Hall, General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), however, has tentatively approved her request and suggested that it be taken up with representatives of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU).

In December, 1964, this matter was discussed with representatives of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, CPSU. At the time, they advised they could not officially invite Peggy Dennis at this time in view of the fact that they have no dates nor do they have a list of countries she would like to visit. They further noted that if they do accept her, which they probably will do once she sets some dates, they will not pay the bulk of her travel bills if she intends to go to other socialist countries. In addition, they desire to know specifically what she intends to investigate in the socialist countries if she does come as a special correspondent.

INFORMATION REGARDING FUTURE COMMUNIST PARTY, USA DELEGATIONS TO USSR AND QUOTAS ACCEPTABLE BY COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION IN 1965

In early December, 1964, the matter of the number of individuals and delegations that the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) would invite to visit the USSR and pay expenses for in 1965 was raised and briefly discussed with Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, CPSU. After some discussion of this matter, Mostovets suggested that in order to secure a firm commitment on this matter from a leading representative, he would suggest that it be gone into detail at the meeting scheduled with Mikhail A. Saslov, a member of the Presidium and a Secretary of the Central Committee, CPSU.

At the meeting with Saslov, at which Mostovets was present, the above matter was raised and at this time the following was agreed to:

In 1965 the CPSU will agree to invite approximately 45 people to the USSR. Of this number, approximately 20-23 can come as individuals for 30 days' rest and travel in the USSR and another 20-22 individuals can come as members of delegations. Such delegations should consist of approximately five Negroes, six to seven women, and seven youths, Party people, etc.

It was also agreed that delegations from the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) for the March 1, 1965, Preparatory or Editorial Commission meeting in Moscow and similar delegations for the May 1st and November 7th celebrations will not be included in the delegation quotas. In addition, any person who has been previously invited, for example in 1964, to come to the Soviet Union but was delayed will not be deducted from the overall 1965 quota if he comes during the next year. It was also decided that the overall 1965 quota would not include Peggy Dennis if she should come to the USSR in 1965, but if Gus Hall sends his wife, son, daughter, and son-in-law, as he has suggested, these individuals would have to be included in such quotas.

ENCLOSURE

It was also pointed out as being best for the CPSU that any individuals or delegations sent should be requested to travel between May 1 and November 30, 1965. It was stated that this is the best season for travel in the USSR as they have accommodations at this time. After this time the weather can become a very important factor.

In concluding and summing up the overall discussion which had been held on this matter of delegations, Mikhail A. Suslov, in essence, then made the following remarks:

As to delegations in the future, please tell your Party that we are going to be strict. We will pay all fares and all the expenses in our country and we will also do our best to make these people comfortable. Please orient them in this regard in the United States.

Why does your Party always include expenses in addition to the fares? They don't spend any money here. We don't give other Parties such expense money and if they do come up, those Parties handle them themselves.

Please understand also that we work on a budget and we can invite only so many delegates. We have to figure the fares, the costs of the stay here, and stay within our budget and that is it. Please ask your Party to understand this. Remind them. We have to work by rules and budgets.

On January 3, 1965, the above information was made available to Gus Hall, General Secretary of the CP, USA. At this time Hall noted he already has four people in mind, in addition to his own family, who he thinks should go to the Soviet Union in 1965. These individuals included a couple who earn jointly $40,000 a year and have apparently been a source of some substantial contributions which Gus Hall has in the past brought back to the Party. Hall did not identify these people by name, but it is possible they may be from Ohio. The other people Hall had in mind were Bernard Ades, the accountant, and his wife. Ades, according to Hall, is handling some settlement in a case with the government and is saving the Party considerable money. This would be the reward to Ades and his wife.

In connection with discussing the above matter regarding the quotas established by the CPSU, Hall was not on this occasion informed that if his family travels, they would necessarily have to be included in the 1965 quota.

MEMO SUBMITTED TO CENTRAL COMMITTEE, COMMUNIST

"PROBLEMS OF PEACE AND SOCIALISM"

During December, 1964, a representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), who was then in Moscow, USSR, prepared and sent to Mikhail A. Suslov, a member of the Presidium and a Secretary of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), an official communication relating to the publication "Problems of Peace and Socialism," also known as the "World Marxist Review," the official theoretical organ of the international communist movement. The essence of the text of this communication sent to Suslov and other members of the Central Committee, CPSU, is as follows:

In our discussion the other day, I mentioned the journal, "Problems of Peace and Socialism." We did not go into a discussion of this matter, but we have heard all kinds of rumors from Italy to Scandinavia suggesting liquidation of the journal. It is the opinion of Comrade Hall and our Party that liquidation would weaken still further the ties between our Marxist Parties. We want you to know the sentiment of our Party on this matter.

The above document was signed in the name of the CP, USA representative and it was noted thereon that it was being submitted in behalf of the National Committee of the CP, USA.

In December, 1964, in a discussion with Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), it was mentioned that Gil Green was being considered as a possible Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) delegate to the March 1, 1965, Preparatory or Editorial Commission meeting in Moscow which will plan for a later meeting of all Communist and Workers Parties. At this time, it was pointed out that Green, since his return to Party leadership after an extended period of imprisonment, was having certain problems in properly orienting himself and at times had taken political positions not entirely in agreement with the overall leadership. However, Mostovets felt it would be all right for the CP, USA to include Green in its March 1, 1965, delegation, and he believed that they could work on him and straighten him out.

During December, 1964, the matter concerning possible reimbursement to the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) of part of the expenses of getting [REDACTED] to Mexico City was raised with representatives of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, CPSU. In discussions regarding this matter, the CPSU representatives made it clear that they were getting much stricter on the matter of paying such expenses. They noted that their original agreement was only to get [REDACTED] out of Cuba and back to Moscow and then Warsaw. Therefore, the expense for the remainder of her trip which ultimately took her to Mexico City was the responsibility of the CP, USA.

~~SECRET~~

On December 10, 1964, Timur Timofeev, Deputy Director, Institute of World Economy and International Relations, USSR Academy of Science, Moscow, came to the Central Committee Hotel, Moscow, and at this time the following miscellaneous discussion occurred:

According to Timofeev, he was working on his Doctorate Degree and was in the process of writing a thesis on the American Labor Movement. In this connection, he indicated he desired certain books dealing with the American Labor Movement and requested that they be sent to the Academy for him. He further noted that such material cannot be personally sent to him unless it is official matter of another Communist Party (CP).

Timofeev also mentioned the fact that his mother, Peggy Dennis, who lives in San Francisco, would like to have a family reunion in the USSR in 1965. He noted that he had tried to get some personal funds to her in order that she might make this trip, but the CP of the Soviet Union had suggested to him that it was not "suitable" for him to do so.

When jokingly told he was a "fine friend" for his refusal to talk at the time of the Khrushchev removal in October, 1964, Timofeev merely noted that he was afraid to discuss the matter at that time. Even during this present discussion Timofeev declined to carry on any discussion on the Khrushchev problem and actually made no reference to that individual.

As to his [redacted] Timofeev noted that they were fine. Since his wife's graduation from the Moscow University, she has been a student at the State Language Courses where she is specializing in the English language.

Mikhail A. Suslov, a member of the Presidium and a Secretary of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), in early December, 1964, made, in essence, the following remarks concerning the Communist Party of India (CPI):

The situation in the CPI is tough although the present leadership there has the support of the rank and file. However, the Communist Party of China (CPC) does have its "finger in the pie" as can be seen by the recent walkout of one-fourth of the Central Committee membership. The Chinese are also attacking the Party leader there, Amrit Shripat Dange, as being a tool of the imperialists. As a result, any additional split, even though small, today would help the ruling class and the imperialists.

MALCOLM LITTLE, ALSO KNOWN AS MALCOLM X

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, in early January, 1965, advised as follows:

According to a leading representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), Malcolm Little, also known as Malcolm X, had, prior to his recent return to the United States, been to Peking, China. No information was available regarding the manner in which Little went to China or the exact period during which this travel was performed.

Little is the founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Inc., and founder and chairman of the Organization of Afro-American Unity.

Characterizations of the Muslim Mosque, Inc., Nation of Islam, and Organization of Afro-American Unity are attached as appendix hereto.

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED (MMI)

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article, would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in time of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

The May 23, 1964, edition of the "New York Amsterdam News," a weekly Negro newspaper published in New York City, contained an article by columnist JAMES BOOKER in which he indicated that he had heard that the visit by MALCOLM X with Muslim leaders during his African tour has changed him to become soft in his anti-white feelings and to become more religious.

On October 6, 1964, a confidential source advised that the MMI is apparently affiliated with the true orthodox Islamic Religion through its affiliation with the Islamic Foundation (of New York), 1 Riverside Drive, New York City. The only teachings of the MMI are on the Islamic Religion.

A second confidential source advised on October 20, 1964, that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York, where they were established on March 16, 1964. These headquarters are shared with the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) which is also headed by MALCOLM X.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, Aka, Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

APPENDIX

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY (OAAU)

On June 28, 1964, MALCOLM X LITTLE, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our" brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI headquarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.

VISA PROCEDURES OF THE
CZECHOSLOVAK SOCIALIST REPUBLIC

During early December, 1964, a representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) entered the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic by way of Prague Airport. In view of the fact that this same representative had previously been through Czechoslovakia during late October, 1964, and a Czech visa had been entered in his passport at that time, which was good for a period of three months, a new visa was not obtained. However, upon landing, he was informed by officials of the Central Committee, CP of Czechoslovakia, that although the visa covered a period of three months, such visas are only good for a ten day period anytime during the three months and this visa had expired.

In view of the traveler's official position in the communist movement, the Czech officials stated that it was perfectly all right for the CP, USA representative to travel through Czechoslovakia even though the visa had expired. Nevertheless, this CP, USA representative stated that he refused to do so as this would look suspicious once he left Czechoslovakia. Therefore, on his insistence the Czech officials changed his visa right at the airport so that the visa was valid throughout the three month period.

In view of the misunderstanding that had occurred, the Czech officials reiterated their previous assurances to the representative of the CP, USA, that he need never obtain a visa beforehand. They stated that in the future it would be most acceptable to them if he would fly into Prague without a visa and then merely phone the office of the Central Committee to advise that he was there at which time an official of the Central Committee, CP of Czechoslovakia, would come to the airport and handle all the arrangements for his entry and stay in Czechoslovakia as well as any subsequent travel he might wish to perform. Although the CP, USA representative accepted their assurances at the time, he retained some doubt as to the efficacy of this approach since customs and airlines personnel in the country of his departure for Czechoslovakia might view as strange or in fact prevent his departure for Czechoslovakia without a visa guarantying his acceptance by that country.

MEETING WITH MIKHAIL A. SUSLOV, A MEMBER OF THE PRESIDIUM AND A SECRETARY OF CENTRAL COMMITTEE, COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION, LATE
DECEMBER, 1964

In late December, 1964, Mikhail A. Suslov, a member of the Presidium and a Secretary of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), met with a representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), who was then in Moscow, USSR. Discussions occurred relating to general inter-Party matters as they concerned the CPSU and the CP, USA. The essence of the remarks made by Suslov at this time is as follows:

We thank you for the documents you have sent in and for the note accompanying the letter of apology. Parenthetically speaking, Suslov was, in his reference to the letter of apology, referring to a letter prepared by Hy Lumer, Editor of "Political Affairs", wherein that individual had expressed regret and self-criticism for having authored and published an editorial which appeared in the November, 1964, issue of "Political Affairs" concerning Khrushchev's removal in which he had been critical of its handling by the CPSU. Suslov then continued by noting let's consider this matter now closed.

We do understand the position of your leadership and are glad that we are now united. We are glad that your Party is in a state of upsurge as a result of the recent election campaign.

Some Parties at the time we changed leadership expressed fears and concern and exaggerated the effect this change would have. Naturally, the reactionary forces used this change and did cause some damage. Some Parties, like the Italians, had expressed fears that the Khrushchev removal would have a major effect on their forthcoming election, but, instead, they showed gains. Some Parties even predicted it would affect the election in the United States but as you can see this did not happen. Those Parties who had fears and forecasted dire consequences were disappointed. Now, we can forget all this, as life has shown to the contrary. The world has learned that though we have changed the leadership of our Party and government, our policies have remained the same. You can fool some of the people all the time, all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all the time. The world can see the policies we follow.

I again want to greet your leadership and tell Comrade Cui that our Party is glad we were united on the direction of policy during your election. We were delighted with your position on peace and unquestionably this played some role in the election.

The line and the role of our Party remain unchanged. We may cut down on polemics, but we will defend our principles in a positive way. If you read the speeches of the Supreme Soviet, you will see that we have not wavered from a state of all the people and have not wavered in our foreign policy.

FORMATION OF SOCIETY IN GERMAN DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC
NAMED "NEW MOTHERLAND"

During early January, 1965, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised as follows:

During December, 1964, an official of the Socialist Unity Party of Germany (SUPG) (German Democratic Republic) (GDR), reportedly stated that a new society is being formed in the GDR which has the name "New Motherland." Among the leaders of this new society is William Renn, who was formerly a writer of note. The object of "New Motherland" is to make contact with Germans who are living abroad, including Germans from both the GDR and the Federal Republic of Germany, in an effort to influence these Germans favorably toward the GDR. This new society will compete directly, according to this official of the SUPG, with the "West German Fascists" who have already under way a campaign of contacts for a parallel purpose with Germans all over the world.

PURPOSE:

To recommend that information obtained by CG 5824-S* concerning the Soviet attitude toward relations between the United States and the People's Republic of China (PRC) be disseminated to the White House, Secretary of State Rusk, Director of Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) McCone and the Acting Attorney General.

BACKGROUND:

CG 5824-S*, while in the Soviet Union during December, 1964, on Solo Mission 17, conferred with Mikhail Suslov, member of the Presidium and the Secretariat, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), who made the following comments concerning the attitude of the leadership of the CPSU regarding relations between the United States and the PRC.

The CPSU is fearful that the United States Government is going to "double-cross" the Soviet Government in regard to relations with the PRC. In this connection, the CPSU is of the opinion that "certain interests" in the United States are trying to go so far as to recognize the PRC "de facto" if not "de jure."

Suslov characterized the PRC as "a bride with too many suitors." In this connection, he noted the discussions which have been carried on over a period of years in Warsaw, Poland, between representatives of the United States and the PRC. Suslov remarked that while the Soviet Union does not know what transpired during these discussions, Soviet officials are of the opinion that "certain interests" in the United States are "pushing" for trade relations with the PRC which would be merely a prelude to more concrete forms of recognition.

Suslov noted that in an effort to counter Chinese influence, the Soviet Union is reluctantly supporting the North Vietnam Government since it believes that this is the only way to keep the Chinese out. However, Suslov indicated that as a matter of fact, the Soviet Union would like to see the Chinese involved in the Vietnam war and would not be sorry to see the Chinese "seriously hurt" in this war.

Recently a leading member of the Secretariat of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia (CPCZ) made the following comments:

The leadership of the CPCZ was very surprised and had no advance warning of the removal of Nikita Khrushchev from his positions of leadership in the Soviet Union in October, 1964.

The CPCZ decided against following the precedent of the Soviets whereby the leadership of the Party and the government was put in the hands of different individuals. The CPCZ has retained the right to do things in its own way, particularly in regard to reorganization of industry.

The CPCZ does not expect miracles in the matter of negotiations with the United States concerning debts and trade. Particularly in connection with trade, the CPCZ does not expect any "favored nation clause" and realizes that there are forces in the United States opposing such trade.

There is some belief that the United States is "wooing" China and that people on the West Coast of the United States favor trade with China.

The following information was supplied by sources which have furnished reliable information in the past.

The leadership of the Communist Party (CP) of Italy is considering adopting a resolution suggesting that the "World Marxist Review," official theoretical organ of the international communist movement published in Prague, Czechoslovakia, cease publication.

The CPs of Great Britain and Iceland have proposed that the magazine be moved to a nonsocialist country because they feel that it should not be so completely influenced by the socialist countries.

Alexei Rumyantsev, a member of the Central Committee of the CP of the Soviet Union (CPSU) and former Editor-in-Chief of "World Marxist Review," has been designated to assume the position as Editor-in-Chief of "Pravda," official organ of the Central Committee, CPSU. A. Sobolev has temporarily assumed Rumyantsev's position and has hinted that he would like this position to be permanent.

Re New York teletype 1/2/65 and subsequent communications setting forth the results of the 17th Solo mission involving CG 5824-S* which began on 11/30/64 and concluded on his arrival in Boston on 12/31/64.

It is recommended that the Bureau consider approving an award of $1,000 for CG 5824-S* and that a personal letter from the Director be prepared for presentation in conjunction therewith, said recommendation being based upon the outstanding results of this latest mission which involved contacts with some 80 people of prominence in the international communist movement during his visit to the USSR, Czechoslovakia and East Germany.

During this period the informant met with some of the most prominent Communist Party leaders in parties and communist governments from throughout the world including the leadership of the CP of the Soviet Union (CPSU) headed by MIKHAIL SUSLOV, member of the Presidium, CPSU, who led the recent CPSU confrontation with CHOU En-lai in Moscow; the leadership of many CPs in Latin America, and the leadership of the CPs of Cuba, East Germany and Czechoslovakia.

This latest trip of the informant was accomplished under great hardship to him from a physical and personal standpoint. The trip itself occurred only 30 days after the return of CG 5824-S* and his wife from the 16th Solo mission on 10/29/64 and was undertaken without accompaniment of the informant's wife and during a holiday season. The informant spent Christmas in Moscow and arrived in Boston only a few hours before the new year arrived. In order that he could spend sometime with his wife during the holiday season, informant's wife at her own expense immediately flew to Boston to meet the informant and accompanied him later to New York.

This trip was undertaken with the distinct possibility that the informant would be ordered to return to Moscow for the coming preparatory meeting for an international conference of CPs at which the Sino-Soviet rift will be discussed in early March, 1965. This therefore will necessitate a third arduous Solo mission within the period of 10/64 to sometime immediately after the middle of 2/65.

Again, the results of this trip have been outstanding. In the main the results of the trip have been submitted to the Bureau by separate communication, and in analyzing these results it is felt that they are outstanding both from an intelligence standpoint and most importantly from the Bureau's standpoint in that the informant through his excellent work has assured the continuity of the Solo operation and his position by cementing a relationship with the new Soviet leadership and enhancing himself with GUS HALL, American leader of the CP. Again, the informant has demonstrated to HALL that he has the ability to produce results in dealings with the Soviets in that on this trip the informant received commitments for a million dollar subsidy to the American Party during the year 1965.

The purpose of this mission insofar as the CP was concerned was to negotiate its annual budget with the CPSU which called for 1½ million dollars and to determine the status of the Sino-Soviet rift, as well as to be in possible attendance at the scheduled (it was later cancelled) preparatory meeting in Moscow on 12/15/64. As indicated previously, the informant succeeded in obtaining a commitment from the Soviets of one million dollars for the American Party on the condition that the American Party re-establish a Daily Worker. On the second point the informant ascertained through contacts at the highest level that the Sino-Soviet rift today is deeper than ever due to the absolute and dogmatic approach to problems confronting these two major Parties as presented by CHOU En-lai at the recent Sino-Soviet conference in Moscow. On the issues of peaceful coexistence and general dealings with imperialism, the Chinese remain dogmatic and the four day conference with CHOU En-lai and leaders of the Soviet Union were fruitless.

The following are specific results obtained from this mission, which of course are not all-inclusive but merely list a few highlights:

1. With regard to the CPSU-CP of China (CPC) meeting in November, 1964, MIKHAIL SUSLOV, who headed the Soviet delegation, characterized the meeting as four days of fruitless discussion. Source learned that LEONID BREZHNEV and ALEXEI KOSYGIN affirmed the general line of the USSR's policies toward the West and declared they would remain the same despite the removal of KHRUSHCHEV. CHOU En-lai stated that in view of the unchanged Soviet line, there was nothing further to discuss and added "Your fate will be the same as Khrushchev." The CPSU now concludes that the differences between the CPSU and CPC are now irreconcilable.

2. The preparatory meeting for the international conference of CPs will be held the first part of March, 1965. Twenty-six Parties, including the CPUSA, have been invited of which, according to the Russians, seven have presently declined, including China and Rumania. The informant learned that the purpose of the preparatory meeting is not to excommunicate any CP but instead is to draw up points of agreement among Parties and the substantive question will not be dealt with in the first session.

3. The informant furnished details concerning a recent conference of CPs of Latin America held in Havana to discuss CASTRO and Cuba. The Latin American communists resented Cuban interference in their affairs, and the Cubans promised to respect the rights of CPs of Latin America and to discontinue the support of guerilla bands and splinter groups not under CP control.

4. Informant furnished details concerning a delegation of Latin American communist leaders sent to Peking following the Havana conference at CASTRO's insistence. Results of this contact were distinctly negative in that the CPC demanded complete surrender of principles and acceptance of the CPC line as the price for unity.

5. The informant furnished extensive details concerning a conference to mobilize world CPs against the McCarran Act and a massive campaign that was set up in Moscow against the U.S. which will be carried out through communist representatives and friends in legislative bodies in countries throughout the world in the immediate future.

6. For the first time in the history of the Solo operation, it was extended to East Germany where the informant met with the editor-in-chief of the CP publication in Germany HERMAN AXEN, member of the Central Committee and Politburo of the SUPG, and two other key people. The information obtained in this side trip is considered of excellent value as indicating German thinking and political moves as well as economic moves as they relate to the West.

7. Informant, cognizant of new changes in the CPSU leadership, when advised that he would meet with lesser lights for negotiating for CP funds, refused to meet with them and demanded that he deal with a member of the Central Committee, CPSU. As a result of his refusals, the informant was afforded two meetings with MIKHAIL SUSLOV, who had dealt directly with the Chinese in November, 1964, and as a result therefore CG 5824-S* obtained a complete account of the status of the ever-deepening rift between the Soviets and the Chinese as well as the Russian plan for the March preparatory conference.

CG 134-46 Sub B

8. As a result of obtaining a commitment of one million dollars for the American Party, CG 5824-S* substantially enhanced his and NY 694-S*'s position as being able to produce for GUS HALL. This should result in continued expansion of the Solo operation.

9. Informant obtained valuable information concerning the present and future plans of the "World Marxist Review" and learned that there are strong indications the life of this publication may be short.

10. The informant obtained detailed information dealing with the circulation and over-all business dealings of Soviet publications with outlets in the U.S.

11. The informant met with CP leaders in Czechoslovakia and was able to supply information concerning present positions of members of the International Department, CP of Czechoslovakia.

12. The informant obtained information as to the identity of certain Americans in Moscow, China and Ethiopia. He furnished details concerning the itinerary of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT as outlined by the Russians for him to Africa and the reasons for such trip.

All of these accomplishments were again accomplished with great personal difficulties and hardships. The informant's health was bad, and despite this he refused to permit his wife, who could have assisted him healthwise and as a secretary, to accompany him because he was afraid of criticism from the Russians.

The trip was made more difficult by the need for the informant to travel many more miles in order that he could make a departure and arrival from a point satisfactory to the Russians. Boston was utilized because it had not been previously used in any of the Solo missions in order that the Russians might be assured that he was travelling with utmost security. The informant as well as his wife also made personal sacrifices knowing that he would be gone through the holiday season and that his wife would be left alone.

These were difficulties encountered in addition to the general inherent difficulties which the informant and his wife accept willingly whenever one goes behind the Iron Curtain.

In the light of the foregoing, it is recommended that the Bureau award CG 5824-S* the amount of $1,000. Further that if approved, a letter from the Director be prepared to be given to CG 5824-S* at the same time.

If these proposals are approved and Assistant Director WILLIAM SULLIVAN is available, it is also recommended that Mr. SULLIVAN be authorized to personally present the award to informant on behalf of the Director.

To assist the Bureau in the preparation of the letter from the Director, attached herewith are some suggested comments that might be included in the letter.

Dear Mr. Childs:

Your safe return from another successful mission abroad is once again the occasion of sincere gratitude to the Divine Providence who guides us and my own appreciation of your outstanding display of devotion to the cause of freedom.

As you are aware, the results of these missions are always brought to my personal attention and are most carefully analyzed. I want you to know that I consider the information which you obtained to be of the greatest importance and significance and as a result has been disseminated to the highest levels of our government.

The personal sacrifices which you willingly underwent in order to insure the success of this mission and your resourcefulness in overcoming the obstacles you encountered are well known to me and are deserving of the highest commendation. In recognition of your accomplishment I have approved an award to you in the amount of $1,000.

I wish to take this occasion to thank you for the warm greetings which you sent to me during the recent holidays and to wish you and your family my best wishes for health and happiness in the coming year.

On 1/12/65, there was received from the Soviets via radio a ciphered, partly-coded message, the plain text of which is as follows:

"1. Your message on creation U. S. Youth Festival Committee was sent to USSR Komsomol. Komsomol would like to know U.S. Youth Festival and Lee Plugin's address to inform International Committee for Youth Festival that is to contact them directly. In respect of your plans to send four groups to Cuba and Vietnam after Youth Festival we think that perhaps it would be better to raise all these questions before respective Communist Parties by your delegates in International Committee and Youth Festival or by your CP members before respective Embassies in Moscow. We are ready to inform on your decision. C. Lightfoot, W. Patterson or Jim West who are in Moscow now.

DISCUSSIONS WITH VLADIMIR

COMMITTEE, COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE
SOVIET UNION

During the course of a trip to the USSR during December, 1964, a representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) was contacted on three separate occasions and held discussions with Vladimir (Last Name Unknown), a representative of the Security Branch of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU). Relative to the operation of the clandestine apparatus for communications between the CPSU and the CP, USA, Vladimir made the following comments:

Vladimir could not say enough in praise of the work being done by the New York representative of the CP, USA in this apparatus. Vladimir called his work amazing and the only inquiry of note which was made was his request for assurance of the security of the New York representative, which assurances were given to him.

Relative to future operations of the apparatus, Vladimir instructed that a change was to be made in the utilization of drops for the passage of written material. In the future drops are to be filled and cleared on Thursdays. This change was to be effective on January 1, 1965. Hereafter the CP, USA representatives are to pick their own drops for passage of material from the CP, USA intended for the CPSU. The CP, USA representatives are to furnish the CPSU with the descriptions of the drop locations; the CPSU will check the surrounding area but will not check the drop itself. Vladimir stated that the CPSU does not desire that any of these drops be utilized more than once. The CPSU will continue to choose the drop locations for the transmission of material from the CPSU to the CP, USA and will inform the CP, USA end of the apparatus of such locations.

Relative to the reinstitution of the secret writing method of communication by means of a Mexican address, which was discontinued some time ago, Vladimir advised that the CPSU is working on the problem of setting up a new address and method of communication. He stated that the CP, USA representatives will be notified by means of their present communications channels of a new Mexican address for the secret writing channel when the entire procedure has been established.

GENERAL REMARKS CONCERNING PROJECTED
MEETING IN MOSCOW, USSR, ON MARCH 1, 1965, OF PREPARATORY COMMISSION FOR WORLD MEETING OF COMMUNIST AND WORKERS PARTIES

During late December, 1964, and early January, 1965, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows:

During December, 1964, opinions concerning the probability that a meeting of the Preparatory Commission for a World Meeting of Communist and Workers Parties would be convened in Moscow, USSR, on March 1, 1965, were expressed by some leading officials of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) and by a leading member of the Central Committee, CP of Czechoslovakia (CPCZ). All these officials were in agreement on this matter and the essence of their statements in this regard are as follows:

Cuba There is a 99% chance that the March 1, 1965 meeting will take place as scheduled, but there remains a 1% chance that it may be postponed once again. The circumstance which constitutes the 1% is the reaction of the Latin American Parties and in particular the reaction of Fidel Castro. Carlos Rafael Rodriguez, a member of the Directorate of the United Party of the Socialist Revolution, recently was a member of a delegation representing Latin American Communist Parties which went to Peking, Peoples Republic of China during December, 1964, at the insistence of Castro with the hope of engaging in discussions with the CP of China (CPC) which might lead to greater unity within the world communist movement. The delegation was coldly received by the CPC and met with no success at all. This delegation, on their return trip from Peking, reported these results to the CPSU in Moscow who nevertheless repeated their intention to convene the March 1, 1965 meeting.

GENERAL REMARKS CONCERNING PROJECTED
MEETING IN MOSCOW, USSR, ON MARCH 1, 1965,
OF PREPARATORY COMMISSION FOR WORLD
MEETING OF COMMUNIST AND WORKERS PARTIES

TOP SECRET

When these results are reported to Castro by Rodriquez and further that the CPSU intends to convene the meeting even without the participation of the CPC, it is the feeling of the CPSU and the CPCZ that it is entirely possible that Castro may then propose that the March 1 meeting be postponed once again so that additional efforts can be made to placate the CPC in order that the March 1 meeting will not finalize the split between the CPC and the CPSU. If such a suggestion is made by the Cubans, the feeling is that there are a number of other Parties who will jump at the chance because of their own hesitancy and desire to follow their own opportunistic line. Falling within this category are the Communist Parties of Italy and Great Britain and many of the Scandinavian Parties. But these Parties will not be the determining factor, especially since the Communist Parties of Italy and Great Britain are more or less committed to attend the meeting. The Parties which would have the greatest possibility of influencing the holding of the March 1 meeting are the Latin American Parties, especially the United Party of the Socialist Revolution of Cuba. However, some leaders of the CPSU have stated that there are some Parties which say that if the CPSU keeps postponing the meeting, there will not be a world communist movement any longer.

Relative to the Latin American delegation to Peking and their treatment by the CPC mentioned above, it is believed that knowledge of this trip is limited to a rather small number of communist leaders. However, a leading member of the CPCZ has noted (rather sarcastically) that there is tacitly what almost amounts to an understanding among the leadership of the CPSU that the Latin American trip to Peking might be made public in order to convince some of the hesitant Parties of the desirability of holding the meeting on March 1, 1965, as scheduled without further delay.

Speaking of the meeting itself, a leading member of the CPSU made the following remarks:

TOP SECRET

GENERAL REMARKS CONCERNING PROJECTED
MEETING IN MOSCOW, USSR, ON MARCH 1, 1965,
OF PREPARATORY COMMISSION FOR WORLD

TOP SECRET

The aim of the meeting itself is to give the Communist Parties a chance to solve the problems of international solidarity. It is possible that not all the 26 Parties who are invited to the meeting will take part. Perhaps those in attendance can discuss how to persuade these other Parties to come. The Preparatory Commission will be a consultative body and all Parties can use their rights to appeal to those Parties not in attendance. The general aim of the Preparatory Commission meeting, from the very beginning, will not be to excommunicate any Party. The aim is to promote unity on Marxist-Leninist principles and to try to find solutions to important problems vital to international life.

The Commission itself will decide what it wants to do and when it wants to meet. The CPSU thinks that the first sessions of the meeting will probably not deal with substantive questions or with any of the prepared documents now being drafted by the CPSU and other Parties. Rather, the first sessions will more likely be devoted to the organization of the manner of conducting the conference itself and what the conference will discuss. Discussions before these early sessions will probably concern, among other things, extracting those problems which should be placed before the meeting which can lead to unity, to specify those problems and general aims of the movement which will unite the Parties. The purpose of this will be to give the Parties a chance to solve their problems, that is, the problems of international unity.

EDWARD LAMB

On January 3, 1965, Gus Hall, General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), engaged in a discussion concerning the activities of Edward Lamb, the industrialist and long-time friend of Gus Hall. Hall indicated that he had recently been talking to Lamb. Lamb told Hall that when he was in the Soviet Union he had made some "investigations" as a result of which he had made some recommendations to the Russians as to how they should reorganize some of their industrial enterprises to operate more efficiently.

The Russians then asked Lamb if he could locate and send to the Soviet Union 37 specialists from the United States to advise and assist them in some of their enterprises. First of all, Lamb cleared this request with some agency of the United States Government and having received approval he located the 37 specialists desired by the Russians and these specialists were agreeable to going to the USSR for the above purpose. However, since the removal of former USSR Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev in October, 1964, Lamb has not heard a single word further concerning this matter.

GENERAL INFORMATION RELATING TO DISCUSSIONS AND ACTIVITIES IN THE
GERMAN DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC DURING THE PERIOD OF DECEMBER 18-22, 1964

On December 18, 1964, an official representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) arrived in East Berlin, German Democratic Republic (GDR), to conduct official discussions on matters of mutual interest to the CP, USA, and the Socialist Unity Party of Germany (SUPG), to form closer contacts between the two Parties, and to take up some specific items which Gus/Hall, General Secretary of the CP, USA, had instructed be resolved. Representatives of the SUPG greeted him warmly and indicated that they had been eagerly anticipating his arrival after so many invitations had been previously issued to him to visit the GDR which he had been unable to accept. It was noted that this visit was occurring during the period of the Christmas Holidays, which is generally considered a bad time for an official visit by a Party official because the East Germans still take this holiday season very seriously. However, the SUPG officials stated that they were happy he was there and they would make the time to insure his enjoyment of his stay in the GDR.

In order to demonstrate that the SUPG would make every effort to fulfill every desire of the CP, USA representative, Rolf Gluekhoff, who is a security man in the International Department of the SUPG, stated that should it be desired he would arrange to have any letters mailed from West Berlin. This would constitute no problem because, stated Gluekhoff, they have Party members in West Berlin by the thousands. He noted that although most persons would not be allowed such freedom, if desired he could easily arrange for the CP, USA representative to be passed through the "Berlin Wall" in either direction and if he should ever desire to enter or leave the East European countries using East Berlin as his point of entry or departure, the SUPG would be happy to arrange it. However, the CP, USA representative stated that he did not desire to avail himself of this offer and subsequently was taken for a tour of East Berlin which included a view of the "Wall." As a security precaution he was brought no closer than a block from "Checkpoint Charlie" and remained within the automobile because of the fact that the West German personnel use long range cameras to photograph people in the eastern zone.

On the following day, December 19, 1984, discussions were held with some members of the leadership of the SUPG. Among those present was Hermann Axen, a member of the Central Committee and Political Bureau of the SUPG and who is also the Editor-in-Chief of "Deutsches Nachrichtenblatt," the official organ of the Central Committee, SUPG. The question was raised with him of the status of a request previously made of the SUPG by the CP, USA, for a printing press to be used by the CP, USA to publish its East Coast paper, "The Worker," plus other publications. This request had been made through the good offices of Forman Freed, Canadian representative on the "World Marxist Review" who had previously visited the GDR. It was mentioned that all the details had previously been given to the SUPG by Freed. Axen replied that he did not have these notes from Freed immediately available to him at that time but that the matter would be looked into.

Pursuing this matter, Axen asked how big was the circulation of the paper for which the CP, USA wanted the press. He was told that at the present time the circulation was quite small but that with the advent of a daily newspaper, the CP, USA hoped that it would acquire a circulation of tens of thousands. Further, the CP, USA anticipated that they might be able to attract other outside work for their print shop in addition to the printing of their own publications.

Axen then stated that the GDR is not sending any new presses abroad because they are hard pressed to build enough to service their own needs; all presses being built at the present time are being used by the GDR. However, they do rebuild some presses which are sent to their factories for this purpose and these rebuilt presses are as good as new and would be excellent for the use envisioned by the CP, USA, especially in view of the limited circulation requirements.

Then Axen asked exactly what kind of press the CP, USA wanted. He was told that all these details had already been furnished to the SUPG by Freed but the kind wanted was exactly the same kind as the Canadian CP wanted. It was understood that the Canadian Party had determined that the press they were currently using was too small and they wanted to get a larger one; this larger type was what the CP, USA wanted also.

Axen next asked how the CP, USA could get the press into the United States. He was told that the CP, USA understands that the GDR has distributors in Canada and that the Canadian Party would handle the re-shipping of the press to the CP, USA. At this point Axen stated that before continuing any discussion on the printing press, answers were needed to some specific questions: 1. Who is going to receive this press? This must be worked out with the comrades in the Canadian Party. 2. More specific details are needed as to the exact machine that the CP, USA wants. This discussion terminated with the understanding that the CP, USA representative would probably return sometime in March, 1965, with the answers to these questions and this matter would then be finally settled.

At a later date, the CP, USA representative who had been in the GDR raised these questions with Gus Hall, who stated that someone must be sent to the GDR who knows something about these matters. Consideration was also given to having someone from the CP, USA go to Canada to have discussions with the Canadian comrades concerning what type of press was being considered by the Canadians. No decision in this regard was made at that time.

Another matter which Gus Hall had instructed to take up with the SUPG was the proposal previously made by Jim Allen of the CP, USA and International Books that arrangements be made with the SUPG concerning the importation into the GDR of technical books. Allen had stated that he had made contacts in the socialist countries and found them willing and desirous to purchase technical books and publications printed in the United States and if the CP, USA would set up an enterprise for this purpose, such purchases would be handled through the CP, USA business. This matter was raised with Axen who indicated that the SUPG was now ready to follow through on their promise in this respect. When this was subsequently communicated to Gus Hall, he advised that the CP, USA is not yet ready to proceed and that no one has yet been selected to go into this business and set up shop.

On the day following the discussions with Axen, that is on December 20, 1966, Gluckhoff directed a tour of several points of interest he had selected for the CP, USA representative to see. During the morning they visited the site of a Nazi extermination camp located at Sachsenhausen (phonetic) about 30 or so miles northeast of Berlin. This was not the worst but was one of the oldest of such camps. In the beginning, only German political prisoners were kept there, then later prisoners from the western countries, then Jews, and finally Russian prisoners. Many of the buildings had been destroyed, leaving only markers in their places, but enough of the buildings were left to demonstrate the nature of the camp, such as the main furnace building where the people were incinerated, some of the barracks, places where the prisoners were examined before execution to discover things the Nazis considered of value, such as gold fillings in their teeth, tattoos, etc. There were regularly employed guides who give tours of this camp not only for visiting officials, but also for huckabeds of tourists and others.

Later on the same day, a visit was made to Tierpke Gardens (phonetic) in East Berlin, which is really a park containing a monument to the Russian war dead. The statue is of a Russian soldier with a machine gun in one hand, carrying a child in his other arm. It is supposed to be based upon a true story of a Russian soldier in the fight for Berlin who heard a child crying and then protected the child as he continued fighting. It is intended to convey the idea that the Russian Army is the protector of the people, especially the children who have no politics. According to Gluekhoff, tourists come from all over both East and West Germany to view this monument. As you approach the monument, every ten to fifteen feet there is a large block of stone inscribed with some quotation from Stalin's writings. The East Germans are quite embarrassed about these quotations and state that they are going to do something about them but at the moment they do not know what. They are trying very hard to prove that they are not Stalinists.

On the following day, December 21, 1964, because of a delay in making travel arrangements, Gluekhoff arranged for a tour of an East Berlin factory where they repair and rebuild railway cars and trolleys. The plant manager and the Party Secretary met the group and conducted a tour through the entire factory. According to the plant manager there are 1,800 employees in the plant, plus 600 office workers (including engineers) and 300 youth apprentices. 380 of the workers are members of the SUPG, all workers are in the trade union, and the youth have an organization of their own called "Free German Youth." The factory is organized on a departmental basis and each department is represented on the factory committee by one secretary of the Party, one head of the trade union, and one representative of the youth. Besides the regular working departments of the factory, their facilities also include a clinic, a small fully equipped hospital, and several kindergartens for the children of the workers.

After the tour was completed, a meeting was held in the office of the Party committee. The plant manager, an old time engineer and a member of the SUPG, made the following comments:

The work fulfillment plans are prepared and sent to the factory by the labor ministry. The role of the Party is to help to apply and carry through the plans. The plan is discussed with all the workers. Each department discusses and concretizes the plan. The Party also carries on a lot of political work to keep the workers abreast of things. In 1964, this factory was to increase production by 80%, according to the plan. Just before the new year, the factory's production went 1% above the plan and some departments realized 10 to 15% above the plan.

The GDR has had a terrible shortage of labor. They figure that in 1950 they had 1,200 workers in this plant; now there are 2,400 workers (not including the youth). It is not expected that this number can increase until 1970. Overall, there is a shortage of 300,000 workers in the GDR. In view of the fact that they are making increasing use of mechanization and automation, this plant expects that they will be able to get along on what they have although this plant is not the type that lends itself easily to the use of mechanization and automation.

As to the reason for this great labor shortage, one of those present at the meeting stated that he had come from a small village. Prior to World War II, there had been 48 Party members in that village. After the war only eight comrades were left. After the war the fascists fled from the Eastern zone and more good people who were influenced by the fascists also fled. Also the United States and British Governments helped some people to get out of the Russian zone. Before the Berlin Wall was built, the rest of those whose absence accounts for the labor shortage fled and the GDR was left with just the old people. Since they also have to take care of the old and sick, this created a serious drain on their resources.

Relative to the wages of the workers, the plant manager stated that in 1950 workers in this plant received a pay of 320 marks. Today the wage for the same period is 700 marks. They also have a clinic for free medical care. They have five canteens which they can choose from a menu of eight different dishes where before there was only one dish that was served. These meals cost from one-half mark up to two and one-half marks. If the price of the meal exceeds a stated amount, the factory pays the excess. Workers are entitled to special vacations. There is a camp for the children of the workers which accommodates 300 in the summer months and 50 in the winter. Toward these vacations the factory donates 34,000 marks. The parents of the children give 12 marks. The trade union contributes 10% of the cost of the vacations and the factory contributes the remainder.

After the war this factory was left with one engineer. Today they have 72 engineers. The factory maintains an academy to train workers in skilled specialities. At the present time there are 300 people in the factory studying in this academy to get higher work qualifications and even to become engineers and technical specialists.

The meeting concluded with a toast to the solidarity of the international working class and the CP, USA representative, Gluckhoff and their party departed.

On the following day, December 23, 1954, the CP, USA representative left East Berlin en route to Moscow, USSR. Before leaving he advised the International Department of the SDPG that material could be sent to him at either of the following addresses: Norma Heasel, Box 7333, New Post Office, Chicago, Illinois 60630; or Betty Trester, Box 6830, New Post Office, Chicago, Illinois 60630. Printed matter can also be forwarded in the name of John Shoulders, care of Modern Book Store, 58 East Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

While at the airport it was learned from Gluckhoff that the GDR is encouraging travelers from the western countries to pass through East Berlin as a point of departure for Moscow, USSR, or Prague, Czechoslovakia. A very favorable price for such travel is given to these travelers and saves the traveler the necessity of returning from West Berlin to points of departure for Prague or Moscow at a greater distance. However, these travelers must pay for the tickets for this passage in the currency of the country whose passport they are using. In this manner, Gluckhoff stated, the travelers save money and the GDR makes money in hard currency from the West. More general observations concerning the GDR: The East Germans are very proud of the manner in which they are rebuilding East Berlin. Once a person gets away from the Wall you can see that the city is being rebuilt in a most beautiful fashion. The East Germans are very apologetic about the appearance and architecture of their early rebuilding efforts, such as the buildings along Karl Marx Allee, when they were following the Russian style of architecture. Now they are following their own architectural style and are very proud of it.

Relative to the amount of Western propaganda which penetrates East Berlin, it was noted that the GDR makes very little effort to keep Western propaganda out of East Berlin. According to the terms of the agreements of the armistice, soldiers from the United States, France and Great Britain are allowed access to East Berlin, and they frequently bring with them Western newspapers, magazines, etc. On the radio and television in East Berlin, there is no difficulty picking up Western broadcasts. While they realize that they cannot keep the Western propaganda out of East Berlin, of course they are not spreading it among their own population. On the other side of the coin, French and British soldiers were frequently observed buying books in their own languages at book stores in East Berlin, so that it is quite possible that the GDR spreads its own propaganda in the other direction by this method.

In discussions with various leaders in the GDR, it is quite apparent that they are going out of their way to erase the vestiges of anti-Semitism in the GDR. It did not appear that any of the officials who were talked to worship the Russians the way they used to. But it is plain that they are in a difficult position because of the fact that the East Germans face the troops of the United States, Great Britain and France and without the Russian troops in their midst they would not have the ability to stand up to the Western forces.

 DIVISIONS OF THE COMMUNIST
PARTIES IN MEXICO AND PERU

During early January, 1965, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised as follows:

As a result of the ideological split which has occurred within the international communist movement, some communists inclining toward the line of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), and some toward the line of the CP of China, divisions have taken place in the CPs in Mexico and Peru. It was learned that in Mexico the pro-Soviet division, which is the previously existing group, is still known as the CP of Mexico. The pro-Chinese or so-called "leftist" group has adopted the name Mexican CP Bolshevik. In Peru the pro-Soviet group, which is also the previously existing group, is the Peruvian CP. The pro-Chinese group, which has split off, bears the name of the CP of Peru.

PAUL NOVICI

During December, 1934, Paul Novici, Editor of the "Morning Freiheit," New York City, was in Moscow, USSR, where he was conducting discussions with various individuals and traveling about in an effort to learn as much as possible concerning the situation of the Jewish population in the USSR, which is still a very sensitive question in the USSR. At that time he had already been in the Soviet Union for a period of approximately six weeks and had visited a good part of Russia, including a trip to the Ukraine. Although he had limited upon the opportunity to visit Byelorussia, he was not permitted to do so. While in Moscow Novici met several individuals while in the Soviet Union were Aron Yergelis, Editor of the bi-monthly Yiddish-language magazine "Yevetish Heimland" -- ("Soviet Heimland"); Nikolai Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section of the International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU); and Ary Shifels, Moscow correspondent for "The Worker." Novici attempted to see Mikhail Maslov, a member of the Presidium of the Central Committee, CPSU, because he is generally considered a policy maker in the USSR, but was unable to do so. According to Mostovets, Novici was not at all satisfied with the results of his investigation nor with the status of Jews in the Soviet Union.

While in Moscow Novici gave a press interview to Tass, the official telegraphic news agency of the Soviet Union, and to a reporter for the "New York Times." The report of this interview as published in the Soviet press was less harsh and was more optimistic than the dispatch prepared by the reporter for the "New York Times." In this interview Novici was not very flattering toward the Soviet Union. Although granting that there is no official policy of anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union, he stated that in his opinion there is anti-Semitic sentiment and there is discrimination against Soviet Jews. No race specific and unfavorable reference to the publication "Judaism Without Embellishment," by Trofim S. Klichko, published by the Ukrainian Academy of Sciences, which is a book of anti-Semitic cartoons and statements. Novich criticized the Soviet Union for the lack of cultural life for Soviet Jews, and for the fact that there are no Jews in the USSR Foreign Service or in high military positions.

(FIRST NAME UNKNOWN) GOODLAND (PHONETIC)

Carlson Handwritten
During December, 1964, William Patterson, a member of an official delegation from the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) then in Moscow, USSR, was reported to be vigorously proposing to the Central Committee, CP of the Soviet Union (CPSU) that the Lenin Peace Prize be awarded to (First Name Unknown) Goodland (phonetic), an individual from the West Coast of the United States who is active in the peace movement. According to Patterson, if this is done, Goodland can be used to offset the influence of Holland Roberts, who is another West Coast individual active in the peace movement with whom the CP, USA has no influence.

It was learned that in order to get the nomination for the prize for Goodland, clearance and approval will have to be obtained from Pablo Neruda, the well-known Chilean poet, a communist and former recipient himself of this prize, and who is one of the foreigners on the Lenin Peace Prize Committee.

It is not known what further action is being taken on Patterson's request.

During the 9th Solo Mission to Moscow, Russia, in 1961, NY 694-S* was given intensified training in the preparation and transmission of messages to improve his operations with the Soviets. For security reasons, this clandestine work could not be performed by informant at his residence or business office. Office space was obtained at 154 Nassau Street, New York City, to facilitate his preparation of messages by microfilming, codes and ciphers, and receipt of radio transmissions from Moscow. This covert office has also been used as a secure meeting place between informant and contacting Agents. Building at 154 Nassau Street is being demolished and New York Office recommends renting of new space, Room 1122, 17 Battery Place, New York City. It is being recommended that such space be secured and necessary expenses be incurred in connection therewith.

Cover Office for Clandestine Work

Since 1962 NY 694-S* has been utilizing office space at 154 Nassau Street, New York City, to prepare clandestine messages and to receive Soviet radio transmissions. The office has also been used under secure conditions by informant to meet with his contacting Agents. The building at 154 Nassau Street is scheduled for demolition and New York after a survey has located secure space at 17 Battery Place. The proposed office consists of about 431 square feet and is on the eleventh floor (Room 1122) of a multiple office building containing several hundred commercial offices of varied businesses, chiefly connected with shipping and exports. The elevators are self-operated and there are four separate and distinct entrances to the building which is owned and operated by the Sheraton-Whitehall Corporation (Sheraton Hotels). The [redacted], has been extremely cooperative and displayed a great respect for the Director during discussions with him. New York and Bureau files were negative on [redacted].

The space will be leased under a fictitious name under a two-year lease which will be renewed on a one-year basis at a rental of $185 a month plus a monthly charge of about $10 for bottled water which is the usual arrangement for tenants of the building. The office consists of the one large room divided in half by a solid wall with a door separating the two rooms. There is also a separate room in the space which contains a shower, toilet, and wash basin and is windowless. One of the walls of this separate room is the outside building wall. Another wall abuts the floor corridor and is of thick solid construction and soundproof; another wall abuts a small room housing the building electrical and telephone cables; and the fourth wall abuts the space to be rented. According to New York, this enclosure in the space is of such construction and location as to afford absolute security in the operation of the radio. The only tenant immediately adjacent to Room 1122 is the Sheraton Credit Corporation, the lessors themselves, and a check of additional tenants in the wing of the building where our space is located fails to disclose any pertinent derogatory data. Bureau files are also negative.

New York advises that Agents will move existing furniture from the present office to the new office requiring no expenditure. The physical setup of the new space is such that there will be no cost involving construction other than installation of new locks on the door to the washroom. Building maintenance service will be utilized only in the main portion of the space and not in the area of the washroom. Cost of locks is estimated at $10. Additional furniture will be needed to give the appearance of a "working office" and should not exceed $400.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that approval be given to move the present cover office of NY 694-S* to Room 1122, 17 Battery Place, New York City, and pay the monthly rental and water charge of $195 per month. In addition, it is recommended that New York be authorized to spend up to $400 for necessary furniture to adequately equip the office and afford the necessary security. Attached for approval is an appropriate letter to New York.

Reurairtel 1-8-65 recommending rental of new cover office to facilitate clandestine work of NY 694-S* in connection with the Solo operation.

Authority is granted to rent this office and pay the necessary rental of $185 per month plus the charge of $10 per month for bottled water under the leasing arrangements described in reairtel. Telephone service should be installed upon discontinuance of telephone service at the current cover office, 154 Nassau Street, New York City. Authority is also granted to purchase locks in the amount of about $10 to secure the so called "radio room" and to spend up to $400 to purchase additional furniture to equip the office. As a precaution, you should place a heavy drapery on the wall in the "radio room" which abuts the utility room containing building electric and telephone cables.

You should continue to exercise the precautions now in effect to prevent surveillance by the Soviets or any communist contacts of informant. Whenever any use is made of this cover office, informant and contacting Agent should be most circumspect and any indications of surveillance should be brought immediately to the Bureau's attention or any other factors which would indicate use of this office to be insecure.

Advise the Bureau when informant begins to utilize this new space and, if there are any changes in the method of operation, promptly advise the Bureau commenting specifically on all elements of security.

"Well January 2nd has come and gone and the papers are full of greetings, but none from us. Am sure Gus Hall sent, but to whom and how. It must hit the spot at the proper time or it is not used and forgotten, so it has been for every occasion.

"Now Calcinis has left and no one has any information about Jack Childs' talk in Cuba. Inquiries simply say he is not here and we don't know. Dr. Rene Vallejo has obstructed every attempt to see Castro directly, and this has been the experience of all South American parties. Until Calcinis is replaced and things started again, all will hang in the air. Beatrice Johnson still thinks the best way to move it in Cuba is to have Hall to direct person to person contact with Castro through the Cuban Mission to the United Nations. This will also show up Dr. Rene Vallejo. Things are moving along, Beatrice Johnson has found ways to do things, but unlike anyone can imagine in terms of normalcy.

"Rodriguez has returned from China and the USSR where with 8 other parties from South America they attempted a go-between. Rodriguez' position as opponent to the Chinese is known, but they came back with little hope it seems from conversations. The Chinese figure high here as always; since Khrushchev is out, it has been strengthened somehow.

"Would like Hall to know that Castro invited parties of Central America to Havana. With these five there have been bad relations for many years. Castro opened with a hard-handed attack, and was forced to take note of many facts. After five days of talk he heard how the Chinese financed premature things causing great harm to parties and splitting left wing, supporting renegades. Castro calmed down and in his great honesty and justice admitted that all things are not known. In his January 2nd talk recognized something. Latin America hopeful thing will change for better and it will also affect us. Beatrice Johnson got this from Latin American in attendance, and in general is close to Latin-Americans, a big help.

NY 100-134637

"January 2nd was good, big advance and maturity - more emphasis on Party. Does Hall see Beatrice Johnson published and unpublished material re 1964 doing in Cuba. Generally, although ideological disputes are not talked about openly, things are happening. There is still a deep going anti-old Communist Party among petty bourgeois in leadership and the pressure is strong. Expect trial old Party soon very damaging revelations connected with USA, will do much harm to Party. At the same time there is on Castro's part attack on petty bourgeois element methods as harmful to entire work.

"Want Hall to know Beatrice Johnson has undertaken measure secure passport in Mexico by way of matrimony. Lawyer working on it, pressure very common and easily done. This way Beatrice Johnson can carry out what is needed with other South American Parties. Will inform later.

[redacted] is going to Canada in the Spring and is O.K. The rest of the American group are weak and ineffective, but not so important. [redacted] is still troublesome. Did she send what you wanted re the traitor? People in Havana concerned about her. Shall she come home or stay? We want to know your opinion.

In paragraph 3, "Calcines" is a reference to a former member of the International Department of the Cuban CP. In the same paragraph, Dr. RENE VALLEJO refers to a confidant of FIDEL CASTRO, who reportedly "screens" anyone attempting to make contact with CASTRO.

[redacted] in paragraph 8, is an American Communist, who resides in Mexico. [redacted] in the same paragraph, refers to [redacted] who is a CPUSA member presently in Cuba (Bufile 100-431305). "Traitor", in the same paragraph, refers to WILLIAM ALBERTSON, expelled CPUSA leader.

NY 694-S* stated that he believes that the above letter reflects a deepening crisis in the PURS in Cuba and he suggests that this letter be referred to CG 5824-S* for analysis. "There have been a number of complaints received from organized groups who go to visit USSR through tours organized by sympathetic organizations that no one pays any more attention to them than to the average Intourist guest. They complained they do not receive any lectures and are not shown any examples of socialist construction and that they are treated as ordinary bourgeoisie tourists. The National Guardian readers have put a number of complaints on this score. As some of the National Guardian readers are influenced by pro-Chinese propaganda, it is important that they be treated a bit differently, as they are paying for it anyway.

UNITED AUTO WORKERS UNION CONFERENCE,
WASHINGTON, D.C., MARCH, 1965, AND COMMENTS BY GUS HALL

Gus Hall, General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), on January 13, 1965, stated that in March, 1965, the United Auto Workers Union was holding a conference in Washington, D.C., on the topic of peace and peaceful pursuits. The conference will take up international problems relating to the subject matter of peace. These conferences by the United Auto Workers Union are annual affairs and last year the subject matter was the United Nations and many from the United Nations organization were invited and did speak. Hall then noted that he knows that the Soviet Ambassador has been invited to speak at this conference and is of the opinion that the Russians should accept this invitation. He noted that if they do accept, it would work toward improving relations and they could also use the invitation to invite some of the top United Auto Workers Union leadership to pay a visit to the USSR. If such top leadership do visit the USSR, they could be invited to participate in forums and other lectures in that country.

Hall made the above available in order that his opinions and feelings on this matter could be immediately communicated to the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU).

INFORMATION REGARDING TRADE UNION DELEGATION OF HOSPITAL WORKERS FROM NEW YORK AREA TO SOVIET UNION, 1965

Gas Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), on January 13, 1965, stated that Si Gerson of New York City was presently arranging through his travel agency a trade union delegation of people from hospital organizations in the New York area to travel to the Soviet Union. The person who is prepared to lead this delegation is Leon Davis, leader of Local 1199, Drug Clerks and Hospital Workers Union. It is hoped that they can include in this delegation such people as Dave Livingston and some Negro and white trade union activists.

This delegation would like to be in the Soviet Union sometime before May Day and Gerson already has air space reserved for them. They would spend about two weeks in the Soviet Union and hope to see factories, trade union centers, welfare activities, etc.--in short, see more than the average tourists.

The delegation will spend their own fares and perhaps even pay something for their stay. But they would like to be invited by a USSR trade union and be treated different than tourists. They emphasized they do not pretend to represent the official labor movement but they are effective leaders in their own organization.

Hall noted that he wanted the above information conveyed to the Russians immediately and, in addition, stated that they had prepared a draft letter which they wanted transmitted to the Russians with the suggestion that they send it back in this or similar form to Leon Davis. If the letter is sent back as requested, the Russians should have it originate with a trade union organization in the Soviet Union of a similar nature as to that which is forming the delegation in the U.S. The text of this draft letter being proposed by Hall was as follows:

"Mr. Leon Davis
President, Drug & Hospital Workers Union, Local 1199
300 West 45th Street
New York 36, N.Y.

"Dear Brother Davis:

"We are advised that you and some other trade unionists are planning to tour our country and arrive here some time in the latter part of April.

"While we understand that this is in no sense an official group, nevertheless you want to see how our trade unions function as well as visit some shops, factories, hospitals and social-cultural institutions as well as the usual historic sights.

"We understand that you plan to make your own arrangements to arrive by air. We want you to know that we will be happy to serve as your hosts and that make all necessary arrangements in that connection so that you can see all the facets of Soviet life you wish.

"Please advise us at your earliest convenience of the exact date of your arrival and the particular points of interest and cities which are of special interest to you and your group.

"Cordially,"

In addition to the above, Hall also stated that he wanted the Russians advised of the following:

There have been a number of complaints received from organized groups who go to visit the USSR. Though the tours are organized by sympathetic organizations, that no one pays any more attention to them than to the average Intourist guest. They complain they do not receive any lectures and are not shown any examples of socialist construction and that they are treated as ordinary bourgeois tourists. The Guardian readers have put in a number of complaints on this score. As some of the Guardian readers are influenced by pro-Chinese propaganda, it is important that they be treated a bit differently as they are paying for it anyway.

INQUIRY CONCERNING INFORMATION REGARDING POSSIBLE CHANGE OF LOCATION OF WORLD YOUTH FESTIVAL

On January 17, 1965, Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), stated that there are rumors that the next World Youth Festival is being transferred from Algiers to Budapest, Hungary. Hall did not know whether this move would be good or bad but wanted confirmation from the Russians as to whether there had been a change. He instructed that inquiry be immediately made of the Russians concerning this matter as they could not operate on the basis of rumor but needed facts.

As of December, 1964, Yuri Sergeovitch Ivanov, who had been serving as a translator and security officer in the International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, was assigned to the Soviet Diplomatic Staff in Israel.
